Wayne hit hard by graduation, one returns

WAYNE — The Wayne Eagles lost their top bird this year and he took three starters with him via graduation to put Coach Chuck Imhoff in a rebuilding situation.

Jump shot artist Cliff Harrell, now at Monroe CC, leaves a 18 pts per game average to fill and leaves Wayne in the same situation as Sodus and the departed Bob Blakely.

Also lost to the Eagles were starters Bill Burnett (15.4), Paul Schmidt (13.2), and all-league selection Bill Lewis.

The only starter returning to Imhoff is 5'6" junior guard Chris Collins, who averaged about 8 pts a game last year.

With that situation facing him, Imhoff will have to decide on a starting lineup from four senior lettermen, all the six top players from a very impressive 15-3 JV team of last year.

With Collins assured of one spot at guard, the competition for the other guard slot will come from 5'10" senior letterman Craig Osterhout, 5'10" Senior letterman Charlie Wilcox, JV recruits Glen Cone and soph Bob Hetu.

The front line for the Eagles shows a decided lack of height so Wayne will have to scrap for rebounds this year.

Top contenders are 6'2" Senior Dan Goff, 6'0" Senior Wally Wyse, 6'2" junior Jim Kelly, 6'0" junior Cliff Manning, 5'11" junior Jeff Loucks, and 5'10" junior Kevin Schultz.

With big guys Harrell, Burnett, and Schmidt blazing away, Wayne finished with a 14-6 average mark, good for second place behind Lyons in the Wayne County league. It may be tough to follow that act this year.

"We're a very small club," observed Imhoff, "and we're going to have to rely on speed and quickness. We absolutely have to play a pressing defense this year."

Imhoff feels the Eagles will have some good shooters and has "10 boys who are all about equal" to provide the nucleus of a good bench.

"Lyons is the team to beat again," felt Imhoff, and Red Creek will be tough also. He commented, it looks like a balanced league again this year."

All roads lead to Red Creek tomorrow night (Friday) when Wayne Central opens their league basketball season. Coach Imhoff's rather small but very aggressive team will try to out run the rangy Red Creek boys. The starting lineup has not been announced, but probably will include Jim Kelly, and Bobby Hetu up front, Clete Manning at center and Chris Collins at one of the guard spots. The other spot is up for grabs.

In the opening game at 6:30 p.m., Coach Stoner's JV's meet the Red Creek junior varsity. After three great seasons, Coach Stoner is not quite as optimistic this year. Much depends on one player, little Jerome Stevens, who could make an average team a very good one. Jerome was called up to the varsity last week for a look. If he stays, it'll be a tough struggle. If he comes back, look for an exciting season. The team has better height than usual but lacks experience. Two, and possibly three, freshmen may be in the starting lineup. Freshmen Dave Gordon, Tom Buchiere, and Matt Brown, along with Sophs, Gary Hyman, Neal Smith and Dave Buck are probably the players Coach Stoner will pick his starting lineup from, unless Jerome is sent back down. Regardless of what happens, you can look for an exciting team by midseason with a coach like Stoner. Better be there tomorrow night.

Red Creek rallies to beat Wayne

RED CREEK—The Red Creek Rams had to rally for a come-from-behind 75-71 win over the Wayne Eagles Friday night behind the efforts of 6'4" center Bryant LaGoe.

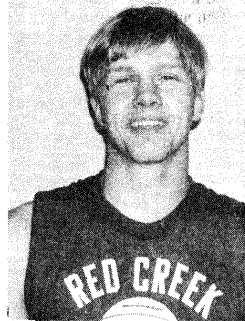

High-scoring games are the rule in the tiny Red Creek gym and boty teams put on impressive offensive shows before Red Creek outscored the Eagles 24-16 in the first period for the victory.

The Rams, expected to challenge for the county league title this year, fell behind 15-14 after the first quarter and trailed 33-32 at halftime.

The Eagles increased their lead to 55-51 after three periods then La Goe pumped in 12 of his 20 points in the final quarter for the win.

Supporting LaGoe in the Rams scoring parade was Dave Smith, who threw in 18 points, 5'6" guard Doug Crain, who pumped in 12 points, and senior forward Craig Guthrie with 10 points.

Chris Collins led the Eagles with 16 points while Wally

Red Creek hit on 17 of their 20 foul shots and big Brian LaGoe scored 12 of his 20 points in the last quarter last Friday night as Red Creek downed the Wayne Eagles 75 to 71 in a very close, well played game. Wayne led 15 to 14 after one quarter; 33 to 32 at half and 55 to 51 as they entered the final period, but were edged out in the last minute of play.

Wayne fell behind eight to two midway through the first quarter but came back strong to gain a one point lead at the first whistle stop. Bobby Hetu and Chris Collins had two baskets and Jim Kelly and Jeff Loucks one each while Clete Manning was scoring on three of four foul shots for Wayne's scoring. Wayne fell behind again in the second quarter, but Wally Wyse came off the bench to score three baskets and Chris Collins and Clete Manning had four points each as Wayne held onto their one point lead at halftime.

Red Creek tied the score at 37 all in the third quarter but baskets by Jerome Stevens, Bobby Hetu and Chris Collins, all on steals within 15 seconds gave Wayne their biggest lead of the night 43 to 37. They traded baskets for the rest of the quarter until Red Creek narrowed the score to four 55 to 51 just before time ran out. Once again it was Wally Wyse who kept them in the game with three big baskets while Chris Collins and Hetu each had two. Coach Imhoff's well balanced club allowed him to substitute freely as seven different boys scored in the quarter.

Red Creek scored eight points to Wayne's two as the fourth quarter opened but Wayne came back to lead 69 to 67 with a little over a minute to go. Brian LaGoe tied the score on two foul shots and then scored on a hook to put Red Creek ahead 71 to 69. Chris Collins then tied the score on a lay-up but Gurthie scored for Red Creek to make it 73 to 71 with 32 seconds left. Wayne shot and missed and Chris Collins collected his fifth foul with nine seconds to go. Johnson of Red Creek missed both shots and Wayne got the rebound but LaGoe stolid it and stuffed it in for the clincher. Chris and Clete each had two baskets as Wayne was outscored 24 to 18 in the final period. Collins led the Wayne scorers with 16 points, two baskets in each period, while Wally Wyse and Clete Manning each had 13. The boys looked real good for their opening game, but it was a good big team beat smaller one. Red Creek paid off especially on fast breaks as Wayne's guards were no match for the big boys. Some was a case of sending a man's job when men on the bench. Only tell. It worked out well.

Coach Stoner's JV's deep freeze in the first game as Red Creek ran four halftime lead. A Tom Buchiere in the first and one by Matt Brown second were all the could score in the first minutes. Meanwhile picked up 12 in the first 16 in the second. The boys started to thaw out in period pumping in two baskets by Tom Brown each by Dave C. Dave Molino but scored 17 to lead 45 to 1 minutes left.

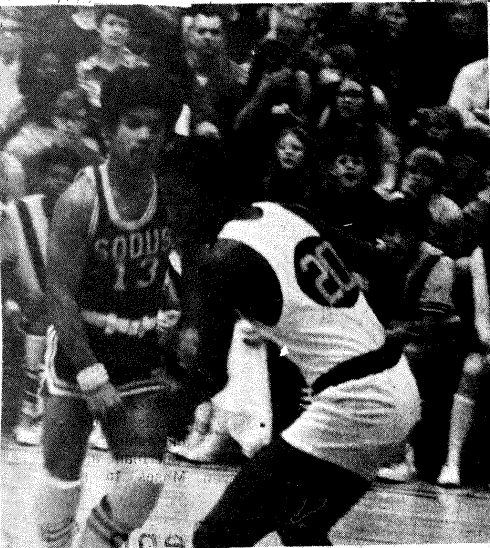

They not only thawed got hot in the final scoring Red Creek 18 was a different team quarter and the one forward to seeing for Tom Buchiere had for the quarter giving him night while Dave C. three buckets and eight the evening. We'll chip up to inexperience, let's play for keeps for

Sports Corner

by Bernie Porray

The winter sports program really gets under way for Wayne Central this week. The wrestlers opened their season at Sodus

Wednesday night and travel to North Rose-Wolcott tomorrow (Friday) night. The JV's wrestle at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity at 8:00 p.m. The freshmen basketball team opens their season at home tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 p.m., followed by the JV's at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity at 8:00 p.m. all at home against Sodus.

Coach Raymo whose team finished with a fine nine and four record last year is very enthusiastic about this years team. He has several veterans back including league 155 pound champion Al Catalano and runnerup to the champion in 177 pound class, Rick Anderson, plus some fine looking freshmen. All the boys have certified for their weight class which means they have to wrestle at this weight or one higher. They cannot wrestle in a lower class even though they make the weight. In wrestling there is no permanent first or second team. Any varsity wrestler may be challenged weekly and the winner is the one who wrestles freestyle, so it is hard to tell you who will be wrestling any certain match. Therefore, I'll just give you a rundown on the boys that might be starting. In the 98 pound class Rick Leuty and Mike Jeffers are back after seeing service on both the varsity and JV's last year, but three freshmen are giving them a good battle. Larry Bamford, Brian Schenk and Ed Hawkins have looked real good and any one of the above five could be a starter. For the opening matches it will probably be Rick Leuty or Larry Bamford. At 101 Teddy Hargather, who did such a fine job last year, appears to be top man but three more freshmen, Eric Johnson, Billy Reynolds and Jeff Holloway haven't conceded a thing. Billy Bellingham and Billy Dixon, both of whom wrestled mostly JV's last year, are trying to get the nod at 112, but another tough young freshman, Al Flint may beat out both of them.

Three new boys are trying for the 118 spot. Bobby Azzano looks real good here but Dennis Keen and Marty Slade are real hustlers. It looks like another freshman at the 126 pound position. Roy Lang, who was undefeated in Junior High last year, has real power and the ability to go with it. Mike Harens and Bill White are trying to dislodge him. Brother Rick

Lang seems set at the 132 weight class although Larry Mitchell has looked very good. Tom Fisher is also certified at this weight but he and Mitchell will probably battle it out for the next weight, 138. Pat Catalano has certified for the 145 class but may not wrestle at that weight until after Christmas when the weight goes up two pounds. Meanwhile Steve Welker seems to have the edge over Dave Hyland and Chris Noone for the present number one spot. Al Catalano is unchallenged at 155 and should do a great job this year. How about beating Charlie's record, Al? Gino Affronti and Patsy Catalano are evenly matched at 167 and this could be a toss-up. If Rick Anderson wrestles like he did the last half of last year, no one will probably dare to challenge him at 177. Dale Barker is certified at 177 as he was last year, but will probably end up, as then as a heavyweight. Freshmen Don Van Deusen and Dave Mogray and Paul Farrell and LeRoy Nottell are competing with Dale for that spot.

With so much competition for each weight class, Mr. Wells, the JV's coach this year, should have a very good team to work with. The first home match is not until January 9 against Fairport, but there will be plenty of action away from home. Next Thursday, December 21, they open the Finger Lakes League at Penn Yan. The JV's are in a tournament at Penfield on Friday, December 22 at 12:00 noon and the varsity wrestles at the same time and same place on Saturday, December 23. The Wayne County Tournament will be held on December 29, at North Rose-Wolcott starting at 12:00 noon.

Coach Rollie Heimberger had 38 boys report for his freshmen team and will carry 21 of them. His game Friday is the only one before the first of the year.

The varsity and JV's will play Marion at home next Wednesday, December 20, and will be at the Spencerport Tournament on Friday and Saturday nights December 22 and 23.

Wayne routs Marion 65-48

WAYNE—The Wayne Eagles, losers of two toughies in a row, got revenge Wednesday night with a resounding 65-48 victory over winless Marion.

The Eagles had lost their first two games by a total of five points and wasted no time in making the Black Knights their first victim.

Bobby Hetu, a 5'10" sophomore, played his second outstanding game in a row, and pumped in 16 points to lead the Eagles.

He received support from Cliff Manning, who chipped in with 12 markers, and Chris Collins and Jim Kelly, both with eight.

Kevin Hosmer was the only Black Knight in double figures, finishing with 11 points as Marion dropped to 0-4. Wayne is now 1-2.

Sports Corner

by Bernie Porray

Except for the varsity wrestlers, Wayne Central sports teams didn't fare too well last week. The JV wrestlers split two matches but the freshmen, junior varsity and varsity basketball teams all dropped decisions to Sodus teams, although the varsity game wasn't decided until the final second of the game. The Varsity wrestlers started the action on Wednesday night at Sodus downing the Spartans 54 to 15 and then travelled to North Rose-Wolcott on Friday night where they turned back the Tigers 39 to 18. The JV's lost to Webster JV's 58 to 12 on Wednesday but whalloped North Rose-Wolcott 53 to 11 on Friday.

At Sodus on Wednesday, Ed Hawkins and Ron Fisher, a couple of freshmen, won the 98 and 105 pound classes on forfeits. Bill Dixon, at 112, took a quick two to nothing lead and then pinned his man in 41 seconds. Bob Azzano took another forfeit at 118 before the Lang brothers each picked up a pin in their class. Roy pinned his man in 1:41 and Rick in 1:59 in the 126 and 132 pound classes. Larry Mitchell, in his first year of wrestling, stayed with his man for two periods, but got pinned at 4:38 of the third. Steve Welker was ahead four to two after two periods but weakened in the third and lost ten to six. Patsy Catalano, filling in for brother Al at 155, pinned his man at 3:13. Gino Affronti pinned his man in 33 seconds but Rick Anderson took only 22 seconds to flatten his. Dale Barker, outweighed by several pounds, lost to his man to make the score 54 to 15. In two exhibition matches, young Al Flint won his first match six to four and Mike Harens had a pin at 1:21.

North Rose-Wolcott won four of the first six matches on Friday night but Wayne took the remaining six to win 38 to 18. Larry Bamford, in his first varsity match, took on the toughest boy in Wayne County in the 98 pound class and stayed with him for five minutes before losing. Teddy Hargather won a nine to four decision for his first win of the year and Billy Dixon got Wayne's only pin of the night, and his second of the year, to make the score nine to six Wayne, but Wolcott took the 119 weight on a pin and both Lang boys lost decisions to put Wayne behind 18 to nine. Rick lost a very tough four to three decision. Larry Mitchell won by default and Steve Welker by forfeit to put Wayne back on top. Al Catalano and Gino Affronti won 14 to seven and 15 to seven decisions and Rick Anderson and Dale Barker picked up forfeits to round out the scoring.

The JV's got clobbered at Webster on Wednesday. The only bright spots being a pin by Don Van Dusen at 167, a decision by Rick Leuty at 105 and one other decision.

They came back strong on Friday to win all but two matches from North Rose-Wolcott. The winners were Ron Fisher, Rick Leuty, Marty Slade, Bob Azzano, Mike Harens, Dave Hyland, Patsy Catalano. Don Van Dusen and Bill Farrell.

In basketball, inexperience cost the Wayne freshmen their first game when they fell to Sodus 52 to 39. Don Johnson was the big gun in scoring and rebounding having 12 of each. Paul Dulin scored 10.

The fast improving JV's started strong holding a nine to eight lead after one quarter but a cold second period saw them drop behind 24 to 14 at half time. Gordon and Hyman each got two baskets in the third quarter as Wayne scored twelve points but Sodus poured in 18 to add to their lead. Wayne held Sodus on even terms during the last quarter but could not cut into their big lead as Sodus won it 55 to 38. Tom Buchiere with ten points, and Matt Brown with nine were the high point men for Wayne. Dave Gordon had three baskets and pulled down most of the rebounds. This is a young club and shows a lot of promise.

The varsity's loss was a heart-breaker. They made up a 11 point deficit in the final quarter, had possession of the ball with 16 seconds to go and a tie score, only to lose the ball and have Sodus make a foul shot with one second left and lose it 51 to 50.

To the Newark wrestlers

I had a visitor today who told me something I feel is worth looking into.

His name is Jeff Kaller. Jeff was a standout on the Newark Reds football team this year and now is on the Reds wrestling team.

He wanted to know if I knew why the Newark wrestling team not invited to the Wayne County tournament to be held at North Rose-Wolcott Dec. 29.

I, of course, was shocked to hear that the Reds were not invited after beginning the tournament themselves seven years ago. They had been a participant every year until now, when Jeff says they weren't invited this year.

"I don't understand it," asked the 177-lb. senior, "we've all been looking forward to the tournament and we're even going to send our second team to a tournament in Auburn so we can go to the county tournament."

Kaller said he couldn't understand why the other schools voted to keep Newark out this year. The Reds are not a powerhouse team and have never even won the tournament. "Wayne and last year Pal-Mac are the only ones that have even won it," Kaller recalled.

He wondered if maybe the fact that Newark was now a full-fledged member of the W-FL had anything to do with it. "But then," he said, "Wayne and Pal-Mac are too and they wrestle the same schools we do and are Class A schools also."

I felt the question was legitimate enough to look into. So here's what I did.

I called Al Gentile, athletic director at Wayne Central School and wrestling Chairman for the county. Gentile welcomed me call to explain that "I am not, personally, keeping Newark out of the tournament. By their complete split from all Wayne County sports, they have excluded themselves from the tournament. Geographically they're still in the county but they are not a Wayne County wrestling team."

Gentile continued by saying, "I've been getting a lot of calls from people in Newark who think I'm keeping their wrestlers out. 'They do not pay any league fees or any additional stipends to pay for the trophies handed out to the winners.'"

Concluding, he said the fault for the mixup belongs to the Newark Athletic department. They knew about this but no one ever told the coach or wrestlers, according to Gentile.

He then urged me to call Ced Tiebout, Athletic Director at Newark, and Ted Woods of North Rose-Wolcott president of the Wayne League.

First, however, I called Harold Haupt, wrestling coach at Newark. This is what he said, "I thought that although Newark has left the Wayne County Association, we would still be invited to the Christmas wrestling tournament since it was originated in Newark. It's true we have left all Wayne County sports but we wrestle the same teams the rest of the county schools do."

Continuing, Haupt said, "There will be no change now. The decision has been made. It is hard on the seniors who have aimed for this tournament. But, it's something we'll just have to go along with. It's bad for us but I can see their side of the situation, too. There should be no hard feelings. I was under the assumption that we were going and there's no one to blame but myself for not finding this out. I'm the guilty one," he concluded.

Next, I called Ted Woods. Ted is President of the Wayne County Athletic Directors and he explained it further. "Newark made a formal request last year which was granted, to leave it Wayne County Public High School Athletic Association. The wrestling tournament for schools that are members of this association, Newark is not.

Concluding, he said, "There was no problems as far as Ced Tiebout was concerned. He knew that we were going to take the action because we had no choice in view of Newark's withdrawal. However, the Newark wrestling coach wrongly assumed they were still automatically in the tournament."

"They could have still been in they had made a request to the Association," Woods said. "But they never did. It's too late to do it now."

So, Jeff Kaller and the rest of the Newark wrestlers, especially seniors, that is the story.

When your school decided divorce itself completely from sports with other county teams by withdrawing from the Wayne County Public High School Athletic Association, they longer were eligible for automatic invitation to the tournament.

You still could have gone to the tournament if Newark made request to the Association to be in the tournament. Your coach assumed, wrongly, not purpose, that you were going.

The problem, as I see it, is that the rest of the schools was you out. They have no choice the rules. The problem communication within your athletic department. Mr. Tiebout and Mr. Haupt should have gotten together after they wrote the letter severing Newark from the other county schools. They should have readied and made request to be included in the tournament as you have been seven years.

I feel sorry for Jeff Kaller and the rest of the Newark wrestling team. They really have to suffer because of a lack of communication.

Do not blame Al Gentile or Woods, and let's hope a les has been learned, however painful to the Newark Varsity wrestling team.

Sports Corner

Wayne Central picked up some fine wins in league play last week but had a very disappointing time in tournaments. The basketball teams played host to Marion on Wednesday night and each picked up their first wins of the year. The varsity built up a big first quarter lead, saw it melt away in the middle quarters and then "poured 'em in" in the final heat to down Marion 65 to 48. The JV's started slowly, picked up momentum and exploded for 23 fourth quarter points as they ran past Marion's junior varsity 61 to 50.

The wrestlers went to Penn Yan on Thursday night where after the JV's were snowed under 51 to 16, the varsity rallied from a 22 to six deficit to take a 28 to 22 win by taking the final five matches. After Wayne had dropped the first two matches by decisions, Billy Dixon tied the score at six to six with his third pin of the year at the one minute mark. Penn Yan then took the next four matches with three decisions and a pin to make the score 22 to six. Steve Welker came through with a fine three to two decision and the next four boys were each moved up one weight. Patsy Catalano wrestling in brother Al's place got a pin at 4:44. Al then picked four points on a 14 to four decision to make the score 19 to 22. Gino Affronti, wrestling where Rick Anderson usually does, tied the score 22 to 22 with a three to nothing decision. Rick scored the winning points when Penn Yan, knowing Rick's capabilities, did not send a man out even though one was available. He won by forfeit.

Ron Fisher got the JV's off to a good start with a ten to one decision. Rick Leuty lost nine to seven and the next eight matches all ended in pins. Mike Harens had one at 2:49 at 132 pounds and Dave Hyland at 3:28 in the 145 weight class for Wayne. Penn Yan won the others.

Coach Imhoff's varsity scored the first three baskets and led 18 to four with a minute left in the first quarter but Marion hit on two baskets to make it 18 to eight Wayne at the end of the period. Bobby Hetu had a hot hand scoring eight points while Wally Wyse and Jim Kelly each had four. They increased their lead to 23 to nine on two more baskets by Bob Hetu and one by Chris Collins but then Marion took over and outscored Wayne 15 to five to trail by only four, 28 to 24 at halftime.

Wayne held their four point lead most of the third quarter but could not pull away as Marion trailed 39 to 36 as the period ended. A basket by Marion narrowed the margin to one point as the fourth quarter opened but Wayne scored the next ten points for a 49 to 38 lead with four minutes left. Marion scored three points but Wayne added ten more for a 59 to 44 advantage with 1:31 left. Coach Imhoff emptied the bench at this point and Charlie Wilcox poured in six points in the first half, added four more in the last half for high scoring honors with 16 points.

The "little" Eagles dropped behind 11 to four after one quarter but with Dave Molino and Dave Gordon each hitting three baskets, cut that lead to 23 to 22 at half time. Dave Molino added two more baskets and Matt Brown came up with six points as the third quarter ended with Wayne on top 38 to 36. With 4:01 left in the game, Wayne led by one, 45 to 44 but that was it for Marion as Matt Brown led the surge that put the game out of reach. Tom Buchiere, who hadn't been hitting, hit two quick buckets and little Todd Wernert hit three foul shots. Matt Brown had nine of his 17 points in the final period in leading the scorers. Dave Molino had 16 and played a very aggressive game. Dave Gordon had his usual good game on the boards and came up with eight points.

In the Spencerport basketball tournament Wayne lost to Churchville-Chili 60 to 47 on Friday night as they dropped behind 28 to 19 at halftime and were never able to catch up. Clete Manning led the scoring with 13 points, the only man in double figures for Wayne. It was not one of their better games.

On Saturday night, in the consolation round, they fell to Spencerport 78 to 75 in a well played game. A cold shooting third period kept them from winning. Four boys hit in double figures with Clete Manning again leading the way with 22 points. Collins and Hetu had 11 each, Loucks, 10 and Kelly, nine.

Coach Stoner's JV's played a great first half and led by one point in their game on Friday but Churchville-Chili's press was too much in the second half as the C-C boys pulled away for the win. Their game on Saturday was cancelled when a bus didn't show up on time to take them.

In the Penfield wrestling tournament, Wayne won six of their twelve matches in the first round and put five of them in the finals but failed to win in the championship round. They finished in fourth place in the eight team tournament. In the first round Mike Jeffers lost a decision, Teddy Hargather had a 3:25 pin, Billy Dixon lost by decision, Azzano lost by a pin, Roy and Rick Lang both lost decisions, Tom Fisher, out with injuries since Thanksgiving got a quick pin, Patsy, and Al (Pete and Andy) Catalano both had pins. Gino Affronti and Rick Anderson both had forfeits and Dale Barker dropped a close decision to Warner of Victor who finished second in the sectionals last year. In the second round, Teddy Hargather had a five to zero decision, Tom Fisher won six to five, Patsy Catalano had another pin, Albert won a referee's decision after three, one minute overtimes, Gino Affronti lost on the referee's overtime decision and Rick Anderson won nine to one. With more boys in the finals than any other team (five) Wayne stood a chance of at least placing second, but all five boys lost and Wayne ended up fourth, one point behind Churchville-Chili. Victor was first and Hilton second.

Wayne Champion

WAYNE — Wayne won its own Christmas Tournament last night, edging North Rose-Wolcott and Palmyra-Macedon.

Denny Verkest was named the tournament's Outstanding Wrestler after winning all three of his matches by pins. The 99-pound North Rose-Wolcott senior is a three-time county champion. Ken Kellar, also of North Rose-Wolcott, is a three-time county champion in the unlimited class.

WAYNE 79, NORTH ROSE-WOLCOTT 67, PALMYRA-MACEDON 66, MARION 49, SODUS 33, LYONS 15. 99 pounds: Verkest (NRW) pin 1:40; 106- Hargather (W) dec. 8-5; 113- Ketchum (PM) dec. 6-2; 120- VanDeusen (NRW) dec. 5-2; 127- Schoop (W) dec. 9-5; 133- Alitt (NRW) dec. 8-6; 139- Case (PM) pin 4:35; 146- Helher (PM) dec. 8-4; 156- Catalano (W) dec. 9-5; 165- Affronti (W) dec. 9-8; 178- Anderson (W) dec. 7-2; Hwy-Martin (S) pin 2:30; Unlimited-Kellar (NRW) pin 3:10.

Penn Yan Toughest Yet For Undefeated Eagles

Wayne Central wrestlers are in for a tough, close match at Penn Yan Thursday night even though the Eagles won two matches by wide margins last week, head Coach Dawson Raymo says.

"We did well against Sodus, winning nine bouts by pins" and winding up with a 59-15 victory, Raymo said, "but we didn't look too well at all against North Rose - Wolcott" despite a 19-18 win.

Forfeits Are Fortunate
"We were fortunate that North Rose gave us 18 points in forfeits," he explained. "North Rose is a much improved team over recent years and it was only our second match and the boys weren't up for it like they should have been.

"I see a very tough match against Penn Yan," Raymo added. "I'll be happy just to come out ahead against them."

The Eagles' nine pins against Sodus "was not a true test for the team," he said. "The boys didn't get a chance to do any real wrestling."

Wayne Central opened its 1972-

CATO-MERIDIAN 72, WILLIAMSON 63 — Dave VanVliet voted the tournaments' most valuable player, pac Cato-Meridian to the championship in its own tournament Cato.

VanVliet, a six-foot-four center, scored 23 points for winners. Williamson, leading 17-16 at the end of the first quarter, lost the lead when VanVliet scored nine points in the second period early in the third quarter Williamson again threatened, coming within one point, but Van Vliet exploded for 10 points in the third period.

Cato-Meridian is undefeated in five starts in Section action. Williamson is now 2-5 for the season.

73 season on Dec. 13 at Sodus and followed up two days later also on the road at North Rose.

Two Are 'Outstanding'

"There were two outstanding wrestlers against North Rose," Raymo said. Ironically, both lost their bouts.

"Freshman Larry Banford wrestled at 98 pounds and showed a lot of promise," the coach said. "It was his first match and he was going against a senior who was second in the sectionals last year.

"Roy Lang, in the 126 pound division, is also a freshman, but he really looked tough in his bout," Raymo added.

"I would say against North Rose my inexperienced boys did a good job, but the experienced players should have looked better than they did," he said.

"North Rose is one of those teams you like to have behind you. They're tough, but you never know how tough they're going to be until you get there," Raymo noted.

'Could Have Done Better'

"I think both teams could have done better," he added.

"I think the main thing for us to do is to concentrate on Penn Yan now," Raymo said. "Penn Yan is a league team and a lot more dangerous than some of the Wayne County teams.

This weekend the Eagles are scheduled to compete in the Penfield tournament, Raymo added.

"We don't know who we will face yet, but those teams competing include Penfield, Hilton, Churchville - Chile, Brockport, Fairport and Victor," the coach said.

"I think Victor is probably the toughest team that will be there," Raymo added.

Sodus Rolls to Bath Crown

ture the Haverling-Bath High School Christmas Basketball Tournament.

Joe Jackson, who was named the most valuable player in the tournament, collected 23 points for the winners. Brad Perry contributed 16.

Barry Jones was high for the losers with 13 points.

Despite Losing Record

Eagles Almost A Power In County, Imhoff S

By BOB BECK

Wayne Central's basketball team is close to being a power in the county league despite a 1-6 overall record, says Eagles Coach Chuck Imhoff.

"If everyone gets up to his scoring potential, we will win a few games instead of losing them by two or three points," the coach explained.

The lone Eagles victory came last week when they downed league doormat Marion, 65-48. This was followed by two non-league losses in the Spencerport Christmas tournament last weekend.

'Played Very Poorly'

"We played very poorly on Friday night and lost to Churchville-Chili, 65-47," Imhoff said.

"On Saturday, we played respectably and lost to Spencerport, 78-75.

"After seeing the tournament, I think we could have won it if we had played ball both nights like we did Saturday," he added.

Lack of interest in the tournament by district residents—only 15 spectators were on hand for the first night of play—may have been a decisive factor in the Churchville-Chili loss, Imhoff said.

'We Were Flat'

"We were flat and just didn't play. The boys didn't seem to be interested in the tournament," the coach explained.

"We came back and played a real strong game the next night," he added. "We got cold in the third quarter and couldn't make a basket from the field, but overall we played well."

Cliff Manning, a 6-foot junior, led the team scoring in both tournament games, getting 13 points on Friday and 22 on Saturday.

The second night, Chris Collins, a 5-foot-6 junior, scored 11 points, including 10 in the first quarter. "If he had kept shooting like that we would have won the game," Imhoff said.

Other high scorers on Saturday were Bob Hetu, a 5-foot-10 sophomore, with 11 points, and Jeff Loucks, a junior playing in his first game, with 11 also.

Marion Victory Expected

Against Marion, Imhoff said the game went pretty much as he had expected.

"They played us straight man-to-man, but didn't really pressure us much," the coach remarked.

"One of their biggest problems is that they don't seem to have the guards, no outside scoring punch," he added. "They had to score inside all the time.

"But I would say Marion is not that far away from winning," Imhoff said. "There were several times in the game when they were really giving us lots of trouble."

Williamson Is Next

The next opponent for Wayne is Williamson on the road and the coach says it will be an important game.

"It might almost point," he explained. "Most of the county are about equal to

"If we can beat V get by Lyons and will be in contention county honors) at said. "Of course, it say it and another think we have a g

He added that he of withdrawing from cerport tournament and will be talking Wayne County coach there is interest in county Christmas

"Some of the coaches like to keep playing teams, but myself I the more you stay the you generate local Imhoff explained.

Xmas Rest May Help Winless Black Knights

Marion Coach Joel Griffing says he thinks the Christmas holidays will be good for his winless Black Knights.

"I think this will have a good effect on the kids because most of them haven't had a break since early September," the coach said following the Knights fourth county league loss to Wayne Central last week.

Marion lost 65-48, but kept the score close until the final quarter.

Marion Has 26 Turnovers

"We turned the ball over 26 times and I think that was the key to the game," Griffing explained. "We didn't shoot bad percentage-wise, but Wayne converted a lot of their steals into scores.

"I don't think there was anything particularly outstanding about Wayne, we just didn't play well," he said.

"Defensively we're doing pretty well, but we will be working hard on defense and going back to the fundamentals" in practice, Griffing added.

"The boys haven't been playing up to what they could and as long as this keeps up, things are going to be tough," he said. "But if they start playing tough, things will get better.

Tough Playing Predicted

"Before this season is over, we will be playing some tough basketball," he predicted.

The Knights trailed the Eagles, 18-8, at the end of the first quarter, but had closed to 28-24 by the end of the first half. The Eagles gained only one point in the third quarter, 39-34, on the Knights, but finished with a 15-point spread.

Kevin Hosimer was high in scoring for the Knights with 11 points.

Despite the loss, Griffing said sophomores Scott Kearns and Mark Erb played a good game and will be of help in future games.

The Knights are in last place in the nine-member Wayne County league with a 0-4 record. They will face Red Creek, 3-0 and in third place, on Jan. 5, followed by non-league Red Jacket on Jan. 9.

Eagles Drop NR-W, 28-22

Wayne, North Rose Still Top Teams

County Tournament This Weekend

Wayne Central wrestling Coach Dawson Raymo says North Rose-Wolcott will be the team to beat in Friday's Wayne County Christmas tournament even though the Eagles downed North Rose, 28-22, last week.

"They gave us 15 points (in forfeits) last time but I don't think they will do that in the tournament," Raymo said.

In last weekend's Penfield tournament, the Eagles had six wrestlers in the semi-finals with five making it to the finals, but finished fourth behind Victor, Churchville-Chili and Hilton of the eight schools entered.

Two Points From First

"Going into the finals we were two points out of first place, but we lost all our matches from then on," the coach said.

Against North Rose-Wolcott, Raymo said he moved all the boys above the 165-pound class up a weight and "that's what paid off for me."

"The guys I moved up were ones I expected to get pins and the wins," he explained. "But the kids I didn't expect things from also got pins."

The Eagles were down 22-10 in seven matches, but had given up only one pin going into the 145-pound division. From then on, Wayne didn't lose a bout.

"It's real hard to pick out an outstanding wrestler," Raymo said.

Two Key Wins

"Billy Dixon at 112 got an unexpected pin, but Steve Welker, a junior, came through in a key bout at 145. The kid he beat was one of North Rose's veterans, yet this is Welker's first year on the varsity."

Dawson said he moved Gino Affronti up from 165 to 177 and North Rose "sent out its best man to beat Gino and get them the tie."

"They figured (Barry) Alexander would give them enough points so they could lose the heavyweight class and still wind up with a tie," he explained.

Looking to the county tournament, which is scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. at North Rose-Wolcott on Friday, Raymo said he thought Wayne has a good chance to finish first.

The Eagles have several defending champions and runner-ups from last year's county and Finger Lakes tournaments.

"The key to any tournament is to have a few first place guys backed up by lots of second and third place finishers," the coach said. "I'd say the county league is roughly even this year with Newark dropping out and Pal-Mac down with injuries."

The Red Raiders swept last year's county tournament, but have lost several key wrestlers through graduation and injuries.

Raymo said last week's tournament was good practice for this week's matches. "The whole season looks real

Five In Finals

Wayne wrestlers who made it to the finals at Penfield include Teddy Hargather, 108-pound division; Tommy Fischer, 138-pound division; Patsy Catalano, 145-pound division; Albert Catalano, 155-pound division, and Rick Andersen, 177-pound division.

In addition, Gino Affronti, 167-pound division, wrestled in the semi-finals.

"I was pretty pleased getting six of our 12 boys in the semi-finals," the coach said.

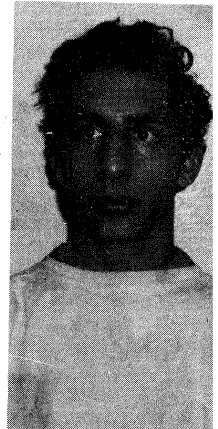

"I guess the biggest disappointment was Teddy Hargather getting pinned. He had out-scored his man, but got caught for a second and wound up pinned," Raymo explained.

Victor, the Penfield tournament champion, "is one of the toughest teams around. There's no question about that," he concluded.

Wayne Wrestlers Win County Tournament

Wayne Central fought off tough challenges by North Rose-Wolcott and Palmyra-Macedon to become the 1972-73 county wrestling tournament champions last Friday at North Rose.

Although only four Eagle wrestlers wound up tournament champions, Wayne took enough second and third-place wins to give it the championship.

The top finishers were Wayne Central, 79; North Rose-Wolcott, 67; Palmyra-Macedon, 66; Marion, 50½; Sodus, 33, and Lyons, 15.

Pal-Mac, the defending tournament champions, surprised most opponents and second place lost by one point to North Rose. The Red Raiders lack depth and have been plagued by injuries for most of the season, but placed seven boys—more than any other school—in the finals.

Wayne lead Pal-Mac by only two points at the end of the semi-finals, but finished strong to win the tournament.

In the championship finals:

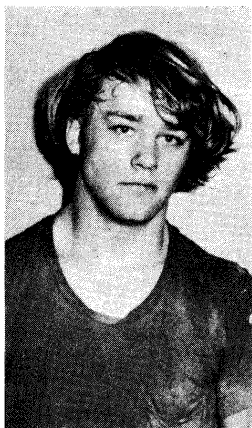

Denny Verkest of North Rose pinned Steve Dalberth of Marion in 1:28 in the 98-pound division; Ted Hargarther of Wayne pinned Scott Helfer of Pal-Mac in 4:30 in the 105 division; Barry Ketcham of Pal-Mac decided Rick Ertel of Marion, 6-2, in the 112 division; Ron VanDeusen of North Rose decided Dave Scheer of Pal-Mac, 5-2, in the 119 division; and Wayne Schapp of Marion decided Jerry DeCaussemaker of North Rose, 6-2, in the 126 division.

Also, Gary Allen of North Rose decided Rick Lang of Wayne, 9-6, in the 132 division; Stew Case of Pal-Mac decided Ed Bailey of Lyons, 6-0, in the 138 division; Rick Helfer of Pal-Mac decided George Allen of Sodus, 4-2, in the 145 division; and Pat Catalano of Wayne decided Jerry Garrett of North Rose, 9-4 in the 155 division.

Also, Gino Affronti of Wayne decided Walter Scott of Marion, 5-4, in the 167 division; Rick Anderson of Wayne pinned Rick VanHoute of Pal-Mac in 1:02 in the 177 division, and George Allen of Sodus pinned Larry McQuarrie of Pal-Mac in 2:43 in the heavyweight division.

In the special unlimited division, Ken Kellar of North Rose pinned Admiral Lord of Pal-Mac in 2:40.

Mynderse Academy Falls to Wayne Rally

Wayne rallied from a 23-12 deficit to defeat Mynderse Academy, 24-23, last night in a Finger Lakes League Eastern Division wrestling match at Seneca Falls.

Dale Barker scored a pin at two minutes, 40 seconds of the heavyweight match to give Wayne the victory.

Sports Corner

by Bernie Porray

Sports action was limited for Wayne teams last week but the quality and results were great. The only scheduled action was the Wayne County Wrestling Tournament at North Rose-Wolcott High School last Friday. Led by the 'Crusher' Rick Anderson, Wayne won four individual championships and the team championships. This was the fifth time in six years Wayne has won the title. Palmyra broke their winning streak last year. This was a real pressure win for Wayne and wasn't settled until the next to last match. With all regulars going Wayne was probably the favorite to win but during the week Al Catalano, a Finger Lakes Champion last year, quit the team for personal reasons and this put a lot of pressure on the other boys, especially his brother, Patsy, who took his place although Patsy had been wrestling varsity at other positions all year. Also Wayne's strength lies in the heavier weights which wrestle last.

Newark, which also dropped from the Wayne County Athletic Association, was not in the tournament so there were only five teams besides Wayne. They were Pal-Mac, Sodus, Marion, North Rose-Wolcott, and Lyons.

All 12 Wayne wrestlers advanced in the first round either by winning or forfeit. Ron Fisher, Ted Hargather, Bill Dixon, Bob Azzono, Ray and Rick Lang, Steve Welker, and Patsy Catalano all had forfeits. The other four all had pins. Tom Fisher pinned Fitzsimmonds of Sodus at 5:07. Gino Affronti pinned Lake of Lyons at 3:34. Rick Anderson flattened Lookwood of Lyons in :22 seconds, and Dale Barker took care of Putnam of Marion in 1:33.

In the second round Ron Fisher lost to Dalberth of Marion but Teddy Hargather best Poller of Marion 10-3. Billy Dixon lost 7-0 to Pal-Mac's Ketchum and Bob Azzono was pinned by Pal-Mac's Sheer. Roy Lang lost a decision to Shaap of Marion but Rick tied Bush of Marion 5-5 and then beat him in overtime 8-2. Tom Fisher lost to Bailey of Lyons and Steve Welker lost a 6-4 decision to Allen of Sodus. The big boys took over at this point and Patsy Catalano pinned Bond of Sodus at 2:41. Gino Affronti pinned VanLare of Sodus at :36. Rick Anderson pinned Robeson of Sodus once again at the :22 mark (and it would have been sooner if the referee had been in position) before Dale Barker fell to McQuarrie of Pal-Mac.

At this point Wayne led Pal-Mac in team scoring 58-54 while North

Rose-Wolcott had 52 but Pal-Mac had seven in the finals to five for Wayne and North Rose-Wolcott. Wayne widened their lead to eight, 65-57, over their two closest opponents with more wins in the consolation round. Ron Fisher beat Mayo of Lyons 5-0. Billy Dixon came back with a 7-4 win over Interlichia of North Rose-Wolcott. Bobby Azzono pinned Brooks of North Rose-Wolcott at 1:48. Roy Lang lost to Brooks of Sodus 10-6. Tom Fisher lost in overtime 4-0 to Nevelezer of Marion. Steve Welker picked up a 7-2 decision over Redden of North Rose-Wolcott, and Dale Barker lost in overtime to Warren of Lyons 3-0.

That brought up the final championship round. Verkest put some points on the board for North Rose-Wolcott by pinning Dalberth of Marion at 128 but Teddy Hargather got them back by pinning Helfer of Pal-Mac at 112 when Ketchum beat Ertwl of Marion 6-2. VanDuesen of North Rose-Wolcott decisioned Sheer of Pal-Mac at 119. 5-2. Shaap of Marion took the 126 class with a 5-2 win over DeCausemaker of North Rose-Wolcott. Richie Lang, at 132, tried but lost in the last period to Allen of North Rose-Wolcott 9-6. Case of Pal-Mac decisioned Bailey of Lyons 6-0 for the 138 title and Helfer of Pal-Mac made the score even closer by taking a 4-2 decision over Allen of Sodus at 145.

At this point Wayne's lead was a mere two points with a head to head battle with Pal-Mac and one with North Rose-Wolcott, coming up. Pat Catalano proved he was capable of taking his brother's place by pounding out a fine 9-4 decision over North Rose-Wolcott's Garrett. This brought up the high school's version of Dominic DiNucci. Wayne's strong boy Gino Affronti. Gino and Scott of Marion battled on even terms for six minutes but Gino got a point for riding time and won the match 5-4 clinching the championship. Rick Anderson put the frosting on the cake and a great wrestling performance by pinning VanHoute of Pal-Mac in 1:02. This gave Rick three pins and a total wrestling time in the three of one minute and forty-six seconds. Hardly time to work up a sweat. George of Sodus won the heavyweight class with a pin over McQuarrie of Pal-Mac. Oddly enough Rick Anderson did not get the outstanding wrestler award. It went to Verkest of North Rose-Wolcott who also had three pins but not in nearly as short a time. This had to be very disheartening for Rick after such a great performance. Wayne finished with 79 points, North Rose-Wolcott 67, Pal-Mac 66, Marion 49½, Sodus 33, and Lyons 15.

Our heartiest congratulations to Coach Raymo and his championship team and especially to the individual winners. Teddy Hargather at 105, Patsy Catalano at 155, Gino Affronti at 167, and Rick Anderson at 177. You wrestled well, took your wins and losses in stride and were gentlemen at all times. You are champs and we are proud of you. Except for the fact that the tournament was not too well organized and the officiating was far from satisfactory it was a good tournament.

The wrestlers go back into action tonight (Thursday) with both teams traveling to Seneca Falls. Next Tuesday, January 9, the Wayne County champs open their home season. With a non league match against Fairport. Let's reward them for their fine achievements with a good turnout crowd.

At 4:00 tomorrow afternoon Rollie Heimberger's freshmen are at home against Victor and tomorrow evening the Varsity and j.v.s travel to Williamson to meet the Marauders.

WAYNE 33, FAIRPORT 21 — Wayne downed visiting Fairport by sweeping three of the final four events.

Wayne was led by sophomore Pat Catalano at the 155-pound class. Catalano is 6-0 on the year winning a 6-0 decision.

The Red Raiders had seniors Dave Stolt (98), John DuMond (112) and Kevin Lennon (145) extend their records to 4-0. All three plus Catalano were champions at the Penfield Christmas Tournament.

Fairport is winless after four meets.

A champ at work

North Rose-Wolcott's champion wrestler Denny Verkest goes through some of the after practice exercises that has helped him earn an undefeated record this year. The 98-lb ace has pinned all his opponents this year. On the left he tries to sit-up exercise with 105-lber Jim Interlichia on top. Looking on is 145-lb grappler Bruce Redden. On the right, he has Interlichia on his back while doing deep knee bends.

Denny Verkest.. Hard work pays off

BY BOB OAKS

Denny Verkest is rapidly proving that small men can accomplish great things. Standing a mere 5'4" and weighing only 98 pounds, Verkest has emerged into what many consider the best wrestler in Wayne County.

A senior at North Rose-Wolcott high school, Denny is completing his fourth year of varsity competition.

"When I was a freshman," recalls Denny, "I only weighed 76 pounds but I had to wrestle one weight class higher (105) because we already had a real good 98 pounder in John Abrams."

In that his first season, wrestling against competition nearly 30 pounds heavier than himself, Denny compiled a 6-6 won lost record.

In his sophomore year, Abrams moved up a weight class and Denny, almost 20 pounds heavier, moved in as the lone 98 pounder. In only his second season, Denny completed 20-2 overall record, losing only in the Section V Class B championships.

In his junior year, Verkest continued to improve, finishing with a 22-2 record and finishing third in the sectionals. He suffered his only dual meet loss in the last three years in this junior season when he was decisively beaten by a tough opponent from Dundee.

Now, again sweeping through Wayne County competition, where he is undefeated in the last three years, Denny again has his sites set on the Section V Class B championships.

John Abrams was the only sectional champion that North Rose-Wolcott has ever had and he did it twice. First as a 105 pounder in his junior year and then as a 112 pounder in his senior campaign. Denny's goal is to go one step higher than Abrams and to win the Section V A-B championships, thereby earning the right to participate in the state tournament held each year at the Syracuse War Memorial.

Should he make the state tournament he would be matched against the top 12 wrestlers in his weight class in the state. But prior to that, Denny must defeat the same wrestler that eliminated him last year in the sectional semi-finals. Denny's top opponent, who is from Geneseo, is also in his last year of varsity competition so the sectionals should prove to be a tough hurdle to clear in his bid to qualify for the state tournament.

However, Denny's coach Ron Behe feels that Denny has an excellent chance of defeating his top rival.

"Denny has improved a great deal this season and he has also gotten a bit stronger while the other boy seems to be about the same. At any rate it will be a very close match."

Coach Behe was full of praise for his top wrestler when asked about Denny's overall contribution to the team.

"As team captain, Denny provides a good example for the rest of the team. Always the hardest worker, he shows the rest of the team what is necessary to produce a winner."

Indeed, this season the Cougars are off to their best start ever as they boast a 4-1 won-lost record and gained a second place finish to Wayne Central in the Wayne County tournament.

In that tournament, Verkest was voted the Outstanding Wrestler by the coaches and officials as he pinned all three of his opponents in quick fashion.

Unbeaten in all eight matches this season, Denny's latest competition came last Friday evening against top rival Dundee. In typical fashion, he pinned his opponent at :20 of the first period to lead the Cougars to a close 32-27 victory.

The son of Maurice and Lucretia Verkest, Denny lives with his parents and his two sisters Stephanie, 16, and Julie, 9, in the small hamlet of North Wolcott. The distinct absence of any brothers from the Verkest family seems to be a good sign for other Wayne County schools as they won't have to worry about any future Verkest as opponents. Denny's 56-10 record over four years of varsity competition is a solid reminder of his domination over his Wayne County foes.

Up until this season, Denny has had no problems with keeping his weight easily below the necessary limit. But this year he has been faced with losing a few pounds before matches.

"I realize what some kids have to go through to keep at their wrestling weights," observed Denny, "so I really don't feel too bad about having to take off a few pounds on occasion."

Denny has complemented his wrestling knowledge gained at North Rose-Wolcott by attending two summer camps for wrestlers. After his sophomore year he attended the Manlius wrestling school and last summer he went to the Lemoyne camp. These summer camps combined with some off-season weight lifting have helped develop Denny into top physical condition and have also given him a mature knowledge of the sport.

Looking back over his four years of wrestling competition, Denny cited the increased spectator interest as one of the most satisfying occurrences of his career.

"When I first began wrestling, we were lucky if 5 or 6 people would come to watch our matches but now things are different. It's not unusual for us to fill two sections of bleachers for some of our matches. I always wrestle a lot harder if my family or close friends are there to watch me, I wouldn't want to get beat in front of them."

Following his graduation this spring, Denny plans to enlist in the Air Force with the possibility of making it a career.

"I've talked to a recruiter and he says that it would be possible to continue wrestling in the Air Force if I could make the team. Our opposition would probably come from small colleges or other branches of the service."

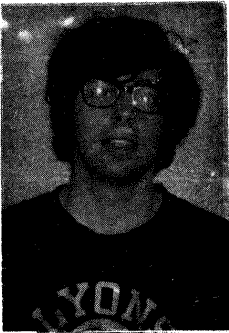

Of course, first Denny would have to put on a little weight because the lowest he could wrestle in the Air Force would be at 118 pounds.

"It really wouldn't matter," suggested Denny, "because I'd have to put on some weight for the service anyways."

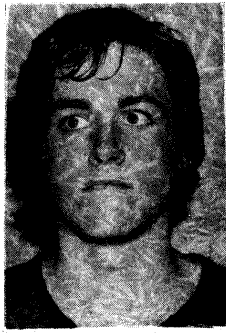

However, now what faces him is his present goal of a Section V A-B championship. With his matches more than one-third over and having won all his bouts by pins this season, Denny seems well on his way to obtaining his goal.

If his past success and his strong determination are any indication of his future accomplishments his goals will most likely become a reality.

Wayne upends Lyons

BY BOB OAKS

Riding the strength of a tenacious zone press, the Wayne Eagles held off a strong second half rally to defeat the Lyons Lions 59-55 last Friday night.

Bob Hetu and Chris Collins led the tight Eagle defense as they recorded six and five steals respectively. In all, the Wayne defense caused 28 Lyons turnovers.

Collins also led the Wayne scorers as he poured in 19 points, including 11 in the second period. League scoring leader Alan Simmons led the Lyons attack as he dropped in 9 field goals and 8 foul shots for 26 points.

Lyons controlled the opening tap and Wayne quickly dropped into a tight 3-2 zone that they used the entire game.

Lyons guard Nick Sculli opened the evening's scoring as he hit a 15 footer over the zone with 6:43 left in the opening quarter. Wayne center Clete Manning quickly answered Sculli's basket with an easy layup only :21 later.

Sculli's backcourt partner Lou Zacharilla then put Lyons back into the lead with a 15 footer of his own.

The next three minutes of play showed Wayne outscore the Lions 11-2 as the zone press really began to pay off. In that time, the Eagles made five steals, turning three of them into baskets and gaining 2 foul shots. Manning opened the Eagle outburst as he hit 1 of 2 foul shots. Collins added a 10 footer, a layup, and a technical foul conversion before Manning and Jeff Loucks added layups to push the Eagle lead to 13-6 with 3:20 left in the quarter.

The Lions' Alan Simmons made the only basket for Lyons in that timespan, an 18 footer with 4:15 left on the clock.

Sculli cut the Wayne lead to three as he hit a 17 footer and then stole the ball for an easy layup with just 1:34 left.

Simmons added two foul shots and Wally Wyse of Wayne connected on a jumper from 13 feet for Wayne as the first quarter ended with the Eagles leading 15-12.

The second period opened with a fast tempo as the Eagles' Kelly and Collins and Lion Dave Schleder all made layups in the first minute of play.

Following a Collins layup at 6:25, the Lions put together four straight baskets to take the lead at 23-22 with 5:06 left in the half.

Schleder and Simmons each netted four points as they each hit easy layups and followed with 15 foot baseline jumpers.

Kelly temporarily put Wayne back into the lead with a layup at 4:50. But after Collins and Schleder traded foul shots, Simmons hit a long bomb from the corner to put Lyons back into the lead 26-25 with 3:38 left.

However, it was the last time Lyons was to be in the lead until the 4th quarter. Following Simmons' basket, the Eagle press did its worst damage of the night as it forced seven turnovers in the next three minutes. The Eagles took grand advantage of their defensive play and led by Collins and Hetu racked up 14 straight points.

Loucks, Collins, and Hetu all scored two layups and Collins added two foul shots as Wayne jumped to a 39-26 lead with just :54 left in the half.

Simmons finally broke the scoring famine for Lyons as he converted one of two foul shots with :51 left in the half.

Kelly quickly answered Simmons' point with a two-pointer and the Eagles left the floor at halftime with a 41-point, 41-27 lead and received a well-deserved standing ovation from the enthusiastic sell-out crowd.

The second half opened with a 1:30 scoring lag, highlighted by a tight Eagle zone which allowed Lyons only one shot.

The Eagles' Manning finally opened the second half scoring with a basket at 6:32 of the quarter.

Following another minute of inability to score by the Lions, bringing their total to eight straight minutes without a field goal, Zacharilla hit a 10 footer to make the score 43-29 with 5:41 left in the 3rd stanza.

At this point, Lyons coach Frank Lisco employed a full court press of his own and the Lions began to narrow the margin. Three straight baskets by Simmons, two set up by steals by the press, and a foul shot for substitute Glen Weimer narrowed the Eagle margin to seven at 43-36 with 2:52 left. The Eagles' Collins, who fouled Weimer, was forced to go to the bench as it was his fourth foul of the game. Up to this point in the game, Collins had been the main factor on the boards for Wayne and had done an outstanding job of keeping Schleder and Simmons out of the middle on offense.

The quarter ended with Wayne's seven point margin intact as Wyse and Collins tallied for the Eagles and Zacharilla combined a 15 footer with two foul shots to make the score 47-40.

The final period opened with Lyons continuing their full court press in hopes of further narrowing Wayne's margin.

Zacharilla took a pretty pass from Simmons to open the 4th quarter scoring and cut the Eagle lead to 47-42.

High Flying Eagle

WAYNE— Beside's leading the Eagles with 19 points, Wayne guard Chris Collins (12) proved to be good at drawing fouls on his many drives. Here he causes Lyons' Lou Zacharilla (11) to get caught with a personal as Wayne won 59-55. Also shown are Dave Schleder and Mark Lazar (33) of the Lions.

Wyse connected for Wayne but a bucket by Lazar and two by Simmons cut the Wayne margin to one point at 49-48 with 6:29 left in the game.

At this point Wayne Coach Chuck Imhoff put Manning back into the game, as he tried to regain some of the early rebounding domination that he had enjoyed in the game.

Simmons continued to dominate, however, as he recorded a blocked shot and two steals and then turned them into three foul shots to put Lyons ahead 51-49 with 5:06 left in the game.

Kelly answered with a layup :26 later that tied the score at 51 all.

Manning then began to make his presence known again as he stole the ball and hit a layup to put Wayne in the lead for good with 4:33 left.

A Loucks steal quickly added two points and a Collins steal and pass to Loucks opened the lead to 57-51 with 3:00 to go.

A slowdown technique by Wayne, following a 10 second violation by the Lions (which incidentally was called while the clock ran from 2:59-2:52), ran the clock down to :43 until Simmons stole the ball and was fouled.

After hitting both ends of the 1-1, Collins converted a technical to make the score 58-53.

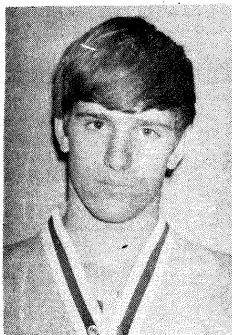

Lyons controlled the tap following the technical and Schleder hit a 10 footer with just :36 left to narrow the score to 58-55.

Wayne then ran the clock down to :06 before Sculli fouled Hetu. Hetu converted one as the game ended 59-55.

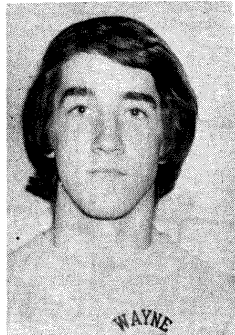

TIP-IN'S—Lyons press forced Wayne into a number of turnovers and Wayne finished with 24 miscues....Wayne outrebounded Lyons 50-37. Manning was big difference as he got 15 boards.....shooting percentage was nearly even as Wayne hit 33.6 percent and Lyons shot 32.7 percent....Imhoff cited good Wayne Press as the difference in the game....Lyons is now 3-3 in the league and Wayne is 3-2.

Is Tim Shipley still at Alfred Tech?

Cliff Harrell, ex-Wayne cager, and Bob Blakeley of Sodas are both seeing considerable playing time with Monroe Community College. Former Geneva High standout Bob Woody has been one of the Tribunes leading scorers. I wonder if Tim Shipley is still on the Alfred Tech basketball team? I didn't see his name in the boxscore for their latest game. Keith Sholly of Lyons scored 12 points in that one. Does anyone know?

County teams on top in W-FL wrestling

A quick look at the W-FL Wrestling standings show two Wayne County teams at the top of the heap.

In the Eastern Division for Class A and AA schools, the Wayne Eagles are tied with Geneva and Canandaigua with 4-0 league marks.

In the Western Division, North Rose-Wolcott sits all alone in first with a 3-0 mark.

Both teams are sparked by individual standouts.

Wayne has two undefeated grapplers, Pat Catalano at 157 and Geno Affronti at 169. Affronti is 11-0 and Catalano is 8-0.

The Eagles are perennially tough in wrestling and this year will be no exception Wayne hasn't wrestled either Geneva or Canandaigua yet. When they do, it should be worth watching.

The Cougars have three unbeaten matmen, headed by their 100-lb. master of the pin, Denny Verkest. Verkest is 10-0 and all of his wins are via the pin route.

Ron Van Deusen at 121 and Gary Allen at 134 are also both 10-0 for Coach Ron Behe. The Cougars are 7-1 overall and 3-0 in league action.

In addition to Verkest, Van Deusen, and Allen, the Cougars have shown good strength in the heavier classes as well. Bruce Redden at 147 has been a pleasant surprise after missing last season with a injury.

The two who have really come through for NR-W in the late stages of several matches have been Jerry Garrett at 157 and Joe Van Liere at 169. Both have lost only one this year.

Reds defense shines

Enough can't be said for the effort put out by the Newark Reds last week against Mynderse.

Missing two key starters and coming off a loss to Lyons and a narrow win over Penn Yan, the Reds looked to be in trouble.

They were facing a Mynderse team that had been averaging about 77 points a game. Both were 5-0 in the W-FL East but Coach Gary Miller never dreamed the Reds would hold the high-scoring Blue Devils to just 25 points.

The Reds were obviously super-psyched for the game and played as tough a defense as will be seen in a long time.

Everyone will now wonder why they can't hold this weeks opponent, winless Midlakes, to about 15 points but that's just not the way it works.

Key games in

Wayne League Friday

There will be two key Wayne County games this Friday. Red Creek (5-0) at Clyde-Savannah (3-2) promises to be a dandy, as well as the Wayne (3-2) at Pal-Mac (4-2) contest. Lyons (2-4) at Sodas (5-0) could also be a good game.

Wayne Bowling starts again

The Wayne County Bowling League got underway last week and North Rose-Wolcott appears to be the team to beat this year.

The Cougars have almost everyone back from last year's team and opened the season with a 4-0 blanking of Lyons.

Pal-Mac will not field a team this year so the league has five members: NR-W, Lyons, Clyde-Savannah, Wayne, and Sodas.

Simmons, Morgan deadlock in scoring

Al Simmons of Lyons and Mike Morgan of Pal-Mac are deadlocked in a virtual tie for the Wayne County scoring lead. Both have scored 138 points in six games for an average of 23.0 pts. a game.

Sodus, Red Creek try not to look ahead to Tuesday

BY DAVE SHAW

There's an old sports rule that says two undefeated teams should avoid looking ahead to when they meet. If they do, it is warned, they will find themselves on the short end of a game with a lesser opponent in-between.

Both the Sodus Spartans (5-0) and the Red Creek Rams (5-0) will be trying not to look ahead to their Tuesday, Jan. 23 meeting at Red Creek.

The Spartans and the Rams must tend to tonight's business before thinking about their clash. If they don't, either of the two teams they play tonight could spoil things.

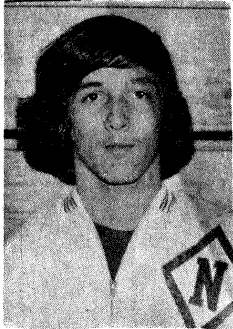

Sodus will host the puzzling Lyons Lions (2-4), while Red Creek will have to contend with the improving Clyde-Savannah Golden Eagles (3-2) in Clyde.

In other games, Williamson (1-4) will travel to North Rose-Wolcott (1-4) and Wayne (3-2) ventures to Pal-Mac (4-2).

Sodus routed Marion by 30 points last week and gave Coach Ed LaRock a chance to see his bench. He must have been impressed since everyone on the team scored.

"I saw the good bench I knew I had," he said, "with a couple kids really improved."

The Spartans will face Lyons with the league's No. 1 defense, giving up an average of only 49.4 points a game. Meanwhile, the explosive Sodus offense has ripped off an average of 67.0 points a game.

WES COLLIER.... back in action

Heading the offensive point-makers is junior forward Joe Jackson, averaging 17.8 pts. per contest. He receives support from guard Jed Dodge (11.2) and several others who are capable of hitting double figures (Brad Perry, Gary Zeger, and Dan Thomas).

The Sodus strongpoint is rebounding and if the Lions harbor any hopes for an upset, they'll have to keep Jackson, Perry, and Thomas off the boards.

Like Don Hartley and Red Creek, Spartan coach LaRock "is taking them one at a time."

Lyons (2-4) is suffering through a disappointing season so far. They're big problem appears to be a lack of consistency. After playing real well in beating Newark, they have not impressed in a win over North Rose-Wolcott and last week's loss to Wayne.

Coach Frank Lisco is concerned about the Lions inability to play a good 32 minutes of basketball. "We didn't play 32 minutes against Wayne. We lost our poise and we're not aggressive enough on offense," he lamented. Lisco was disgusted with the Lions last week but will "try to get the job done with the guys we've been using, but we've got to find consistency."

Lisco expects the game to be won on the boards and said, "I wish we had Danny Thomas again to help us there."

Al Simmons continues to pace the league in scoring (23.0) and Nick Sculli (13.2) has had a hot hand lately.

When the Red Creek Rams go to Clyde, they'll face a team that has won their last two games from the foul line.

The one the Rams must try to avoid fouling is guard Walt Coolbaugh. Coolbaugh, averaging 15.4, has gotten most of his points from the charity stripe. Fellow guard Greg Donk (10.8), gives the Golden Eagles a solid back court punch.

The Golden Eagles big man has been Bill Mead. The 6'6" center is hitting at a 16.4 clip and is coming off a 21-point performance against Williamson.

Mead will have his hands full with the Ram's Bryant LaGoe in a battle of big men. LaGoe (14.0) is one of five Rams in double figures as Red Creek boasts the loop's top offense (75.2 pts. per game average). Others are forward Craig Guthrie (16.7), and guards Jon Park (14.0), Doug Craine (11.0) and Charlie Johnson (10.1).

Coach Don Hartley commented, "We're still working on our defense, especially the press. We've hadn't had to use it yet but we have to be ready."

Hartley is concerned about his big men, Guthrie and LaGoe, getting into foul trouble. "That hurt us against Pal-Mac and we can't afford not to have those two in there," he emphasized.

Golden Eagle mentor Nick DerCola wants his team to start hitting more field goals. "We've been getting the shots," he said, "but we're not hitting too many of them."

Der Cola has been pleased with the Golden Eagle defense. Their 58.0 def. average ranks fourth in the league and Clyde-Savannah has held their last two opponents to under 50 points.

"We will have a height problem with Red Creek," DerCola stated, "and they are very, very good. A 7-0 team has to have something."

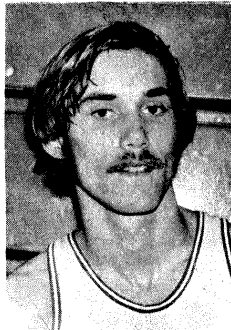

The Wayne-Pal-Mac contest also promises to be tough. Pal-Mac has dropped two games in a row and face a Wayne outfit that has won three league games in a row.

The Raiders boast the league's co-scoring leader in Mike Morgan (23.0) but have no one else in double figures. Wayne has three starters in double figures and one not far behind. Leading the Eagles is senior guard Chris Collins (13.0), forward Cliff Manning (11.4) and sophomore Bobby Hetu (10.1).

Raider coach Don Jordan will make no changes for the game. "We just happened to hit two good teams (Red Creek and Clyde-Savannah)," he commented.

Several Pal-Mac players have missed days of school because of illness this week but all are expected to be ready for the game.

Wayne hasn't reached any kind of peak, according to Coach Chuck Imhoff. "For a young team, they're doing about what I expect from them."

Imhoff said he was impressed with Pal-Mac's type of basketball and "they always give us trouble." The Eagle mentor indicated he will start Jeff Loucks against Pal-Mac, "if they play a zone."

Finally, the Williamson Marauders and North Rose-Wolcott Cougars hope to earn their second league win tonight. Only one will, however, as the two tangle in North Rose.

The Cougars have had the week off to reorganize things and Coach Ted Woods indicated he may be going to his bench earlier. Also, the Cougars will have last year's leading scorer on the JV team, Wes Collier, back in uniform.

Leading the Cougar's offense is senior Barry Jones (16.8) and Royce DuVal (13.3).

Williamson has beaten only Marion and Coach Gary Clark feels the Marauders are committing "too many fouls." "We've outscored several teams from the field," noted Clark, "but have lost games on the foul line."

Clark has seen the Cougars play and said, "When they're off, they're off but when they're on, they're really on."

Junior forward Dave Van Gorder is expected to see considerable action for the Marauders with the rest of the lineup determined from scrimmages this week.

Marion has the week off.

The undefeated Wayne wrestlers picked up wins number five and six last week downing Fairport 33 to 21 on Tuesday and Waterloo on Thursday 31 to 13. Meanwhile the varsity basketball team won their third in a row beating Lyons in a thriller on Friday night by a score of 59 to 55. The junior varsities are having a little trouble getting started, the wrestlers dropping both of their matches and the round ball boys got thumped by Lyons. Rollie Heimberger's freshmen defeated Lyons 60 to 38 after beating Victor last week 51 to 27.

Wayne started slowly in their match with Fairport last Thursday, dropping four of their first five matches but came on strong to win easily 33 to 21. Larry Bamford lost an eight to zero decision but Ted Hargarther picked up six points on a forfeit. Billy Dixon lost ten to one and Bob Azzono lost by a pin. Mike Harens was on the short end of a eight to two count before Rick Lang who is looking better every match, got a pin at 3:44. Tom Fisher got a forfeit to put Wayne ahead 18 to 15 but Fairport tied it when Steve Welker dropped an eight to nothing decision. Patsy Catalano put Wayne ahead once again with a six to nothing decision. Gino Affronti won by forfeit and Rick Anderson put his man away in 1:38 to give Wayne their 33 points. Dale Barker, outweighed by an even 40 pounds, dropped a five to three decision.

The JV's lost 37 to 25 with Ron Fisher picking up another impressive win 13 to nothing. Rick Leuty won a 13 to two decision. Larry Mitchell had a 1:26 pin and Don Van Dusen won 12 to six.

Wayne's basketball game with Lyons was almost a carbon copy of the Williamson game. They took a big first half lead, faded in the third quarter, fell behind midway in the final period and then came back strong in the closing minutes. The first half of the game was Wayne's best of the year, especially on defense. The defense was also great near the end of the game when they kept Lyons from getting off any good shots.

Coach Rollie Heimberger used 20 players in downing Lyons last Friday 60 to 38. Johnson was the scoring leader with 19 while Devlin had 12 and Stubbins eight. Last week they turned back Victor 51-27. Stubbins was high man with 12 points followed by Johnson with eight. Devlin was the top rebounder in both games. They played Fairport at home on Tuesday and go to Palmyra tomorrow afternoon.

The varsity and JV's are also at Pal-Mac Tomorrow night. A win for the varsity would be a big boost toward a sectional berth. A loss will make it tough. They need your help.

The wrestlers were at Marion on Tuesday night and are at home tonight against a tough Mid-Lakes team. A fine crowd was on hand last week, let's make it bigger tonight.

Lyons took a two to nothing lead on a basket by Sculli but Manning tied two to two on a short jumper. Zacharilla made it four to two Lyons but a free throw by Manning and a basket by Collins put Wayne ahead five to four. Simmons gave Lyons the lead six to five with a long jump shot but a basket by Manning, a basket and foul shot by Collins, a foul shot by Kelly and a basket by Loucks made it 13 to six before Lyons started to move again. Two baskets by Sculli and two free throws by Simmons made it 13 to 12 before Wally Wyse hit from the corner to make it 15 to 12 Wayne, after one quarter.

With Chris Collins pumping in 11 points, Wayne took a 14 point lead by halftime, 41 to 27. Zacharilla hit on a foul shot as the second period opened but Jim Kelly and Chris Collins had buckets to make the score 20 to 13. Chris Collins got another basket for Wayne but Schleide hit two baskets and two foul shots and Simmons had two baskets to put Lyons ahead again 23 to 22 with five minutes left in the quarter. A basket by Kelly and a foul shot by Collins put Wayne ahead 25 to 23 but Lyons regained it on a foul shot by Schleide and a basket by Simmons. Wayne poured on the coal at this point and scored the next 14 points in a row. Baskets by Loucks, Hetu, Collins, Kelly and two foul shots by Chris made it 35 to 26 with 1:30 to go in the period. Bobby Hetu and Chris Collins each poured one in before Simmons hit a foul shot for Lyons. Jim Kelly made it 41 to 27 just before the halftime buzzer.

Clete Manning increased the lead to 16 as the third period opened but Lyons started to press and poured in nine points on three baskets by Simmons, one by Zacharilla and a foul shot by Weiner to cut the lead to 43 to 36. Wally Wyse broke the scoring drought with a basket and Zacharilla and Chris Collins traded baskets with time running out. Zacharilla was fouled as the buzzer sounded and made both shots to make the score 47 to 40 with eight minutes remaining. Sculli and Wyse traded baskets before Lyons put on what looked like a winning drive. Lazar scored his only basket of the game and Simmons hit two baskets and three free throws to put Lyons on top 51 to 49. Wayne had no thought of folding as Jim Kelly tied it up 51 to 51 and Clete Manning put Wayne ahead 53 to 51. Jeff Loucks then drilled in two corner shots to make it 57 to 51 with 1:42 left. Simmons was fouled with :43 left but was called for a technical foul for slamming the ball down. Simmons made both free throws but Collins made the technical foul and Wayne got possession of the ball at midcourt. Bobby Hetu sewed it up by making one of two foul shots with time running out. Final score 59 to 55.

Chris Collins led Wayne in scoring with 19 points, 16 in the first half, while Jeff Loucks had 10 and Kelly and Manning 9 each. It was a great team victory but they still haven't put it all together. They're going to do that tomorrow night at Palmyra.

The wrestlers won the battle at Waterloo last Thursday night but they lost the war. They won nine of the twelve matches but lost the services of their best wrestler indefinitely. Rick Anderson injured his left shoulder and may be out for the year. Rick had won 10 of his 11 matches this year, many of them by pins. His only loss was in the finals of the Penfield tournament. Wayne won the first four matches by decision. Larry Bamford rallied from a five to five tie to take an eight to five decision. Teddy Hargarther, who seems more confident every match, drubbed his man 19 to one. Mike Jeffers who beat out Billy Dixon for the 114 spot, shut his man out six to zero. Bill Dixon in turn beat out Bob Azzono for the 121 spot and after falling behind eight to three, beat his man 15 to eight. Roy Lang, out for a week with a bad knee, dropped an eight to two decision but brother Rick kept his winning streak alive with a fine seven to three win. Tom Fisher dropped a decision but Steve Welker got the three points back with an 11 to three decision. (From where we sit it looked like a pin.) Patsy Catalano got a take down and two escapes plus riding time to beat his man five to three. Gino Affronti got the only pin of the night when he flattened his man with three seconds left in the first period. Dale Barker wrestling at 179 decisoned his man 11 to eight. Rick Anderson, wrestling heavyweight, then hurt his shoulder on a take down and had to default. The final score was 31 to 13. This was not only a tough break for the team but for a boy who loves to wrestle, and has come so far in the last two years. All is not lost though as Al Catalano is back on the squad and will probably take Rick's place until gets back. The JV's dropped another one 37 to 17. Ron Fisher shut out his man 13 to zero. Billy Slade won 12 to one. Mike Harens won eight to two and Don Van Dusen pinned his man at 5:45. Norm Bargerstock won 12 to two but had to forget being overweight.

Pal-Mac downs Eagles

BY LOU ZIEGLER

PALMYRA—The Wayne Central Eagles displayed their poorest scoring record of the season when they hit on only five of 39 second half shots, resulting in a 63-60 defeat at the hands of Palmyra-Macedon, Friday night.

The difference in the ball game was the Eagles' inability to put the ball into the net. The Raiders connected on 28-56 attempts while Wayne put the ball up 78 times, but made just 22 baskets.

Leading scorer in the ballgame for the home team Raiders was junior Mike Morgan who scored 15 points. Morgan contributed six of Pal-Mac's nine fourth quarter points. The Wayne C9unty League's second leading scorer had a relatively cool shooting night. He canned 7-23 shots.

The Eagles' Clete Manning led all scorers with 20 points. Chris Collins added 15. Tom Lindsay, the Raiders only starting senior, had one of his better nights with a 14 point effort. He hit on 5 of 11 tries.

Cliff Hunt came off the Bench the spark two Raider rallies. With his club down by five points in the second quarter he made six quick points and watched as the Raiders erased their opponents lead and take a five point margin themselves.

Wayne scored 45 points in the first half and only 15 points the rest of the game. They led 20-18 after the first eight minutes and 45-40 at the halftime break. Pal-Mac took command 54-53 after three periods of play.

Floor shooting for the hometown Raiders who face Newark Tuesday and Sodus, Friday night, both games on the road, was: Greg Nolan, 3-3, Jim Nolan, 5-8, Doug Nolan, 3-5, Tom Lindsay 5-11, Mike Morgan, 7-23, Cliff Hunt, 3-3, Jim Campbell, 0-1, and Dan Herman, 2-2.

Wayne Central shooters were: Jim Kelly, 4-16, Chris Collins, 5-11, Glen Cone, 0-3, Clete Manning, 9-22, Bob Hetu, 3-7, Kevin Schultz, 3-9, Wally Wyse, 0-6 and Dan Goff, 0-0.

The Pal-Mac Jayvees won the preliminary contest 69-64, in a come-from-behind effort.

Sodus Stays Unbeaten

Unbeaten Sodus rallied in the last three minutes of the game to defeat Red Creek, 69-64, and send the Rams to their first loss in a Wayne-Finger Lakes League basketball game last night at Sodus. Sodus is 9-0 and Red Creek is 8-1.

Red Creek held margins of 18-15, 33-31 and 49-48 at the end of the first three quarters, but a pair of baskets by Jo Jackson, three free throws by Gary Zeger and a basket by Brad Perry sparked the Sodus rally in the closing minutes.

Jackson was high with 21 points. Jed Dodge and Perry each finished with 13 and Zeger had 11. Chuck Johnson hit for 34 points in a losing cause as Bryant Lagoie had 14.

SAVONA 70, CAMPBELL 64 — Bill Vetter scored 28 points to pace the Bulldogs over Campbell in Steuben County League action at Savona.

Wayne's winning streaks in wrestling and basketball came to an end last week as the wrestlers, after beating Marion on Tuesday night 38 to 18 for their seventh straight duel meet, fell to a fired up Mid-Lakes (Clifton Springs-Phelps) team 29 to 20 and the basketball boys a three game winning streak lost a thriller to Pal-Mac, 63 to 60. The JV wrestlers broke their losing streak by beating Marion 42 to 27 and Mid Lakes 28 to 27. The JV basketball team played by far their finest game of the season but lost to Pal-Mac after leading most of the way, 68 to 64. Rollie Heimberger's freshmen won over Fairport on Tuesday afternoon, 56 to 51 but also succumbed to that Pal-Mac jinx losing a heartbreaker 61 to 59 on Friday.

At Marion on Tuesday, Marion jumped off to a six to nothing lead as Dalberth pinned Larry Bamford with 20 seconds left in the match. Teddy Hargarther cut the lead to six to three with his fifth win of the year against one loss with a five to nothing decision. Marion made it 12 to three when Rick Ertel pinned Mike Jeffers at 5:16. Bobby Azzono got those joints back when he pinned Spittall of Marion at 5:10. Shaap of Marion then pinned Roy Lang at 5:47 for an 18 to nine lead but that was their last points as Wayne won the next seven matches. Rick Lang who had to go overtime to beat Bush of Marion, who in the county tournament, beat him 18 to three this time. Tom Fisher took a six to two decision and Steve Welker won eight to seven. Norm Bargerstock, in his first varsity match, was tied two to two after two periods but picked up nine points in the final two minutes to win eleven to two. Gino Afronti took an all to one decision and Al Catalano, after leading 14 to two, pinned his man with five seconds left in the match. Dale Barker needed only .35 to pin his man and make the score 38 to 18.

For the JV's, Eric Johnson wrestled an exhibition match and won it four to two. Ron Fisher, Rick Leuty and Marty Slade all won forfeits for an 18 to zero lead but Mike Harens, Larry Mitchell and Chris Noone all lost by pins and Al Flint by a decision to make it 21 to 18 Marion. Dave Hyland won by forfeit and then won by a pin in an exhibition match. Pat Catalano won by a pin but lost by forfeit for being overweight. Don Van Dusen, who has been wrestling very well lately, put Wayne back in the lead with a 1:07 pin and Paul Farrell and David Mogray won by forfeit to make the final score 42 to 27.

As said, all the Friday basketball games were thrillers. The freshmen missed a layup and a couple of fouls in the last minute as Pal-Mac won 61 to 59. Paul Devlin had 21 points and 13 rebounds, Bebernitz, 14 points and 12 rebounds, Johnson 10 points and 11 rebounds and DeLass had eight points.

In defeating Fairport on Tuesday, Roome had 14 points and Bebernitz, ten. Those two and Devlin each had 13 rebounds. Their record is now three and two.

The JV's, thanks to some great shooting by little Jerome Stevens, led Pal-Mac until the final three minutes of the game. Jerome played a beautiful floor game and scored 32 points on 13 field goals and six foul shots. He had 12 points in the second quarter and 12 in the final period. His shooting percentage was sensational. Gary Hyman had a hot hand in the first period scoring nine points as Wayne led 13 to four after four minutes and 17 to 14 at the end of the period. Jerome's 12 points plus four by Tommy Buchiere and two each by Hyman and Dave Molino increased Wayne's lead to 37 to 30 at halftime.

Wayne could score only eight points in the third quarter, four by Stevens and two each by Buchiere and Molino as Pal-Mac cut the lead to 45 to 42. Jerome kept Wayne in the game in the fourth quarter as they held that three point lead 57 to 54 with 4:20 left, but number 25 of Pal-Mac who had only six points the first three quarters hit on ten straight foul shots and three field goals in the final period to push Pal-Mac ahead. Wayne trailed 60 to 59 with two minutes left and 63 to 61 with 1:24 left but a basket and foul shot by Pal-Mac in the last 15 seconds gave them a 68 to 64 victory.

Pal-Mac took a three to nothing lead on a free throw by Morgan and a basket by Lindsay before Bobby Hetu hit one for Wayne. Dave Nolan made it four to two but two baskets by Jim Kelly and a foul shot by Chris Collins gave Wayne a seven to four lead. Jim Nolan and Jim Kelly exchanged baskets as did Hunt and Clete Manning. Jim Nolan scored again but Clete regained the three point lead 13 to ten. Lindsay and Jim Nolan gave Pal-Mac a 14 to 13 lead but Clete scored a foul shot with 2:19 left to tie the score. Chris Collins pumped in two goals to give Wayne an 18 to 14 lead but goals by Morgan and Lindsay tied it 18 all. Chris Collins goal with :15 left gave Wayne a 20 to 18 lead as the quarter ended.

Lindsay hit on two free throws to tie the score again as the second quarter opened. Clete regained the lead on a layup, but Gary Nolan tied it 22 to 22. Clete broke loose to put Wayne back in the lead but baskets by Morgan and Gary Nolan pushed Pal-Mac ahead 26 to 24. Chris tied it 26 to 26 but Hunt and Gary Nolan put Pal-Mac ahead by four. Manning and Herman exchanged baskets before Clete scored two free throws and Collins and Kelly baskets to bring Wayne within one, 34 to 33. Baskets by Jim Nolan and Dave Nolan made it 38 to 33 but two baskets each by Jeff Loucks and Bobby Hetu and one by Jim Kelly made it 43 to 38 Wayne. Jim Nolan scored again but Jeff Loucks gave Wayne a 45 to 40 halftime lead with a basket just before the buzzer.

Clete increased the lead to seven, 47 to 40, early in the final eight minutes but Dave Nolan and Morgan hit on long jumpers to make it 47 to 44. Clete drilled in another one but Morgan Hunt and Dave Nolan scored to put Pal-Mac ahead 50 to 49. Collins hit two free throws but Lindsay hit two field goals, one before and one after Jeff Loucks goal to give Pal-Mac a 54 to 53 lead with eight minutes left.

Morgan increased the lead to 56 to 53 but two free throws by Chris Collins cut the deficit to one. Lindsay scored for Pal-Mac but Clete hit one for Wayne to make it 58 to 57 with 4:17 left. Morgan broke loose for two baskets but Bob Hetu scored at 2:05 and Clete with 25 seconds left to make it 62 to 60 Pal-Mac. Dave Nolan hit on one of two free throws with four seconds left to sew up the game.

The starting five did all the scoring. Clete had 20, Chris 15, Jim 10, Jeff 8 and Bobby 7.

Wayne's wrestlers started out good on Thursday night against Mid-Lakes when Ron Fisher took a nine to three decision and Teddy Hargarther won his sixth of the year with a tough six to five win but Mike Jeffers and Roy Lang lost decisions and Bob Azzono by a pin as Wayne fell behind 12 to six. Richie Lang took on undefeated Rick Pederson of Mid-Lakes and showed why he is one of the best in the league and the most improved on Wayne's team by beating him nine to five. Tom Fisher dropped a decision but Steve Welker, behind five to nothing and nearly pinned during most of the first quarter, (with an illegal hole) came on beautifully in the final period to beat his man 12 to seven. Pat Catalano wrestled to a five five draw and Gino Afronti, another vastly improved wrestler, got Wayne's only pin at 2:20 to make the score 20 to 17 in favor of Wayne. Al Catalano wrestling two classes above his weight, took a five to nothing lead but got pinned at 4:41 and Dale Barker lost by a pin at 5:40 as Mid-Lakes handed Wayne their first loss 29 to 20.

The JV's jumped off to a 13 to nothing lead as Larry Bamford won 15 to zero. Rick Leuty had a 1:09 pin and Marty Slade won 10 to eight but Al Flint ahead seven to nothing, made a mistake and got pinned, Mike Harens lost four to three, Larry Mitchell lost a 3:28 pin and Chris Noone and Dave Hyland lost nine to nothing and five to two as Wayne fell behind 21 to 13. Norm Bargerstock won a ten to two decision and Don Van Dusen came up with a 1:04 pin to put Wayne ahead 22 to 21. The two teams traded forfeits in the final two matches to give Wayne a 28 to 27 victory.

Wayne explodes in 2nd half, rout C-S 88-66

Wayne guard Bob Hetu (24) drives for a lay up during Friday's 88-66 romp over Clyde-Savannah.

BY DAVE SHAW

ONTARIO—It took them a little while, but when they did, the Wayne Eagles exploded over the Clyde-Savannah Golden Eagles Friday night, 88-66.

The win moved the Eagles into a tie for third place with Pal-Mac, losers to Sodus.

After the game, Golden Eagle coach Nick DerCola said his charges "were completely outclassed" by the fast-breaking Eagles.

Wayne Coach Chuck Imhoff feels his Eagles are at their best when running and passing. He must have been pleased Friday night as the Eagles took control of the boards and just ran and ran to their fifth league win.

Both teams struggled through a mistake-strewn first quarter that saw an unusual number of steals and turnovers.

Greg Donk wasted no time in getting Clyde-Savannah on the board but Wayne's Clete Manning, quickly tied it at 2-2.

Wayne began pressing right off the bat and came up with three straight steals. The Eagles were unable to convert the steals into points, however.

With Wayne, still pressing, the play turned sloppy for a two-minute period. Both teams exchanged turnovers instead of baskets before Walt Coolbaugh swished two free throws for a 6-4 C-S lead.

With 4:37 left in the quarter, Coolbaugh again hit two free throws to give the Golden Eagles an 8-4 bulge.

Both teams then warmed up considerably and in the final three minutes of the quarter, put on a good shooting display, with Wayne coming out on top 16-14.

The Eagles slowed things down to start the second quarter. They worked the ball to Manning, who swished a jumper from the corner to give Wayne an 18-14 lead.

Coolbaugh then scored the next three points to bring C-S within a point but Chris Collins canned a 10-footer for Wayne.

With Wayne still pressing, John Solomon took over for the Golden Eagles by scoring on a steal and a free throw to tie it up at 20-20 with 4:44 left in the half.

Manning and Mead traded buckets before Wayne's Jeff Loucks scored on a drive and a 15-footer. Collins followed with a beautiful move to the bucket for a layup and Wayne's largest lead up to that point, 30-24.

The Eagles increased their lead at halftime to nine points at 34-25 with a four-point outburst.

The first half saw Wayne set the tone of the game. They kept up their control of the boards and got the running game in high gear in the second half.

Clyde-Savannah, however, drew to within a single point of the Eagles in the third quarter.

After Solomon and Kelly exchanged buckets, Wayne returned to their 3/4 court press but it proved ineffective.

Mead then took personal control of the Golden Eagle's offense. He pushed in a rebound, scored on two layups, and hit a free throw to draw Clyde-Savannah to within two at 36-34 with 5:56 left in the period.

Wayne reacted with a six-point spurt on a layup by Loucks and two inside buckets by Manning for a 42-34 bulge.

The Eagles keep right on running and added eight more unanswered points to increase the margin to 50-34. During the 14-0 Wayne hot streak, Clyde-Savannah was extremely cold from the field and ran into foul problems as well.

Mead finally broke the Golden Eagles scoring drought with a 5-footer but Bob Hetu countered with a driving layup to make it 52-36 with 1:04 left in the period.

The third quarter ended with Wayne holding a commanding 56-38 lead.

Both teams began the final quarter by trading bucket for bucket until Kelly's two free throws gave the Eagles a 66-46 lead with 5:03 to go.

Loucks and Kelly then scored to give Wayne an insurmountable 24-point lead at 70-46 with 4:29 to go.

Wayne didn't stop there however, as Collins, Manning and Hetu all scored to give the high flying Eagles a 78-47 bulge with only 3:14 to go.

After Donk swished two long jumpers, Imhoff emptied his bench and Clyde-Savannah outscored Wayne 19-10 the rest of the way for a final of 88-66.

The loss dropped Clyde-Savannah to 4-4 in league and 5-4 overall.

Coolbaugh led all scorers with 22 points, while Manning's lead Wayne with 20.

TIP-IN'S—The Eagles outrebounded Clyde-Savannah 45-20, to largely account for their domination. Manning led the way with 14 rebounds. Imhoff felt that was the story of the game. "I told them before the game that it could be won or lost on the boards," he commented. "The Eagles have a group of talented passers, especially Hetu and Collins, to compliment their fast break."

DerCola stated, "We were outthusted, out-rebounded, and completely outplayed." "Der Cola was particularly disappointed that Wayne got so many baskets from underneath."

"They (Wayne) did a real good job. I don't think we could have beat them tonight on our best night," he observed. "Clyde-Savannah was again foul-prone, another sore point with DerCola. 'We've been over 20 our last three games after not having over 14 out of five games,' he pointed out. Wayne will host slumping Red Creek on Tuesday. Clyde-Savannah will host undefeated Sodus."

TIME OUT!

by Dave Shaw

A midstream view of Wayne hoop

Now that the Wayne County basketball league has reached the halfway point in their season, I'd like to take a look at each team's status.

First of all, Sodus. The Spartans are boasting a perfect 8-0 league mark. They've beaten everybody in the league once.

Before the season, Coach Ed LaRock was worried about how fast his JV recruits would adapt to varsity ball. After all, the Spartans lost their two top guns, Bob Blakely and Reggie DeRue, and had some big holes to fill.

Those JV's of last year, now juniors, were Joe Jackson, Brad Perry, and Bryan Weeks. All three, especially Jackson, have adapted so quickly that in their first varsity game, helped Sodus rout Clyde-Savannah by 30 points.

The Sodus effort at 8-0 has been a total team effort, with everyone pitching in with some help at the right time.

The second time around through the league won't be very easy but right now, Sodus looks unbeatable.

Red Creek started real strong in what many observers felt was "their year". With several returning veterans, the Rams were expected to be tough. They ripped through six straight league opponents behind a powerful, balanced offense. A week ago, they met unbeaten Sodus for first place and lost a heartbreaker, 69-64.

The Rams were obviously still down after that loss and ran into a sky-high Williamson team that handed them their second loss in a row.

Red Creek is going to have to forget those two losses and begin the second half the way they started. With Craig Guthrie, Bryant LaGoe, and Dave Smith doing the inside work, and Charlie Johnson, Jon Park, and Doug Craine providing the outside punch.

The Pal-Mac Raiders (5-3) have lost three of their last four games after jumping off to a 4-0 record.

The Raiders have relied on a good defense and the scoring punch of junior Mike Morgan.

The fact that Pal-Mac is doing this well is a tribute to Coach Don Jordan. He was totally wiped out by graduation and had with any real varsity ex at all.

However, combining and Jim Lindsay with Nolan's up from the JV's got Raiders off and flyin'.

With Cliff Hunt at Campbell coming off th with key buckets, Pal-Mac capable of beating anyone will be lucky, however, can repeat that 5-3 mark i around.

Wayne appears to me t of the better outfits in the

The Eagles started v tough losses to Red Creel and Sodus (51-50) but ha on strong since then.

When their game is like Coach Chuck Imhof to, Wayne can really bre a game.

The Eagles also have u despite losing four st including Cliff Harrel Clete Manning and Jin doing the board work, W able to hold their own anyone on the boards. guard Chris Collins, e shooter Jeff Loucks promising sophomore Hetu make Eagles a threat this time around.

Clyde-Savannah (4-4) h an up and down team. Of felt the Golden Eagles w tough this year with Bill Walt Coolbaugh, and Gre all back again.

But they have been er times, beating Lyons a Mac but losing to Nort Wolcott.

One of the most pl teams in the league, Savannah has had foul pr their last two losses.

Fred Everts is gor Coolbaugh, Donk, Mead Solomon, and Tom Liseno tough group.

Lyons (3-5) had a disa trip through the league ti time, compared to the lat teams.

Everyone knew it wo tough for the Lions to rep few guessed they would The capability is there fo Frank Lisco if he can o them all playing together

It's second time around in tonight's Wayne hoop action

Al Simmons has had several outstanding games but hasn't really put it all together yet.

If Ed Foster can give him some help, the Lions may find their second journey through the league more productive.

Williamson (3-5) is one of those so-so teams that looked like they'd be right where they are now.

The Marauders were expected to beat Marion, and North Rose-Wolcott, but really came through with the win over Red Creek.

They have been plagued by sickness at the forward spots, first Dave Van Gorder and now Chip Marcellus, Bob Kuhn and Chris Lund have really come on strong for Coach Gary Clark.

I look for the Marauders to knock off a few more teams the second half.

North Rose-Wolcott (1-7) has no right being where they are. The Cougars are simply not a 1-7 team.

They seemed to get discouraged after some early losses by narrow margins and have been lackluster since then.

Offense seems to be NR-W's main problem, as evidenced by their scoring only 37 points in a loss to Williamson.

Barry Jones has been streaky and the rest of the Cougars have failed to provide any spark at all.

Things will get better if the Cougars get serious and play the ball they're capable of playing.

Marion (1-7) has had problems offensively and defensively. The Black Knight score the fewest points and next to Red Creek, give up the most.

A noticeable lack of size hurts the Black Knights but they're strong point has been the front line of Jeff DeLyser, Steve Roegiers, and Kevin Hosmer.

Up until the win over North Rose-Wolcott, Marion got very little production from the guards. Now, Mark Erb and Tom Haak have hit double figures occasionally.

I don't see things getting much better the second time around. They're just not strong enough.

run into trouble this time.

Red Creek (6-2) has dropped two games in a row. Wayne has won four of their last five games and are especially tough at home.

While Red Creek is trying to recover from their 57-56 loss to Williamson, Wayne is coming off an impressive 88-66 romp over Clyde-Savannah.

The once-potent Ram offense has been quieted down lately with their strong point, balanced scoring, not coming through.

Craig Guthrie and Bryant LaGoe have been steady all year long but the play of the Red Creek backcourt has been spotty lately.

Wayne, meanwhile, has come the closest to beating Sodus, losing 51-50, and are looking better every week.

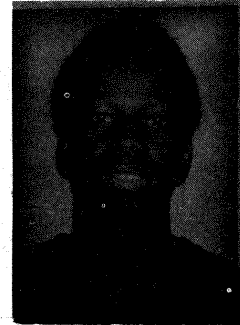

The Eagles are a young team that likes to run as much as possible. When they do run guard Chris Collins, and Bob Hetu, are among the best passers and drivers in the league.

Clete Manning has evolved into one of the top forwards in the league to help Jim Kelly on the boards.

This rematch should be a turning point for both teams.

Sodus, it's record unblemished in ten overall and eight league games, will travel to Clyde to battle the Golden Eagles (4-4).

Clyde-Savannah is an unpredictable club that has been up and down, as their record indicates.

The first time the two meet, Sodus blew the Golden Eagles right off the court with a blistering fast-break, 77-47.

It may not be as bad this time, but Sodus appears unstoppable at this point.

Bill Mead, Walt Coolbaugh, Greg Donk, and John Solomon pace the Clyde-Savannah attack.

Finally, Pal-Mac pays a return visit to North Rose-Wolcott (1-7).

BY DAVE SHAW

ONTARIO—Shock...Disbelief...Bewilderment on one side.

Joy, happiness, elation on the other side.

The cause of these emotions was a heart-stopping, rip-roaring, amazing come-from-behind 68-67 Red Creek victory over Wayne last night.

The Rams, looking like they were going to drop their third straight league game, caught fire early in the fourth period and ended up blazing.

Wayne, in complete control for three quarters, used a devastating full-court press to amass a nine-point lead at halftime.

It was the press, however, that finally did the Eagles in as Red Creek used three straight bombs by forward Craig Guthrie to get them rolling.

Wayne, pressing from the beginning, fell behind 6-0 on Red Creek buckets by Guthrie, Charlie Johnson and Dave Smith.

Clete Manning and Guthrie traded layups before Wayne began forcing Red Creek turnovers and converting them into points.

With 3:44 to go in the quarter, Red Creek held a 12-7 lead. They stretched it to 14-7 on Smith's layup before Wayne began to take control.

Still pressing, they scored the next seven points to tie it up at 14-14 with 1:53 to go. Johnson then ripped off four consecutive points before zLoucks and Collins hit jumpers to knot it again at 18-18.

Johnson hit two free throws to end the quarter with Red Creek ahead 20-18.

Wayne then caught fire in the second quarter as Glen Cone and Collins stole the ball on the press and hit jumpers to give the Eagles a 24-20 lead.

Wally Wyse popped a 15-footer and a 12-footer to give Wayne a 28-20 lead with 5:08 left in the half.

It was the Rams' turn to get hot now as Smith scored twice on driving layups and Guthrie banged in a 12-foot jumper to make it 28-26.

Both teams then exchanged buckets as both clubs began passing and fast breaking with considerable finesse.

Wayne put on a two-minute tear to end the half as Loucks hit three free throws and Manning scored at the buzzer to give the Eagles a 39-30 halftime lead.

The Wayne press was taking its toll on Red Creek, which threw the ball away numerous times, often into the hands of the Eagles. It looked as if the Rams were in trouble at this point.

The Rams' situation looked even bleaker after Manning and Collins opened the second half by combining for three points and Wayne's largest lead at 42-30 with 7:03 to go in the quarter.

Suddenly, the Rams were back in it as Guthrie and Johnson began pecking away at the Wayne lead. Both hit jumpers to pull Red Creek within eight at 42-34.

Coach Don Hartley then made the decision to begin pressing the Eagles. The strategy worked as Guthrie, after teammates' steals hit two straight layups to make it a 42-38 game with 4:10 to go in the quarter.

But the Eagles still looked like they had the upper hand as Collins hit a pair of free throws and Jim Kelly pushed in a rebound to make it 46-38.

Things really looked ominous for the Creekies after Guthrie was shaken up in a collision with Manning and had to leave the game.

With Guthrie out, Wayne got hot and took control of the boards. They jumped out to a 51-40 third quarter lead.

The crucial fourth quarter saw the pace evolve into a circus of scoring as both teams roared up and down the court.

The scoring became so fast and furious in the last five minutes that the scoreboard was a basket behind at one time.

Red Creek began their comeback slowly and Bryant LaGoe canned two straight layups to make it 53-46 with 6:06 to go.

Wayne called timeout to go over their press. Coach Chuck Imhoff later said he told them that possession of the ball was more important than scoring.

Red Creek didn't go for that, however, as LaGoe and Craine hit two pointers for a 53-50 score with 5:10 to go.

LaGoe hit a more tree throws to draw within one at 53-52.

Wayne went cold from the floor. Collins hit two free throws to return the lead to three but Guthrie, back in the game, really took over.

The 6'2" forward swished four consecutive long jumpers in a 50-second period to bring the Red Creek rally to the top at 60-55.

Wayne refused to play dead yet. Loucks and zKelly muscled in for layups to make it 60-59 with 2:40 to go.

Wayne, still pressing, got a Kelly layup to regain the lead at 61-60. Johnson, quiet since the first half, hit a 10-footer but Kelly countered with an eight-footer to make it 63-62.

With the scoreboard blinking away, LaGoe hit a layup to give the lead back to Red Creek at 64-63 with 1:34 to go.

Eight seconds later, Manning banged in a layup to give Wayne the lead again at 65-64.

Smith squirmed free for a layup to change the score again to 66-65 with 1:12 to go.

The Eagles worked the ball, looking for a good shot, before calling time out with 33 seconds left on the clock.

Hartley instructed the Rams not to press and they lay back to wait for the Eagles. Wayne, much to the chagrin of Imhoff, tried to force the ball inside where Smith came up with it with 22 seconds showing on the clock.

Taking the ball out under their own basket with Wayne pressing, the Rams were able to spot LaGoe loose for a layup to give the ecstatic Rams a 68-65 lead. Loucks scored for Wayne with three seconds left to make the final 68-67.

TIP-INS—Hartley was really pleased with the comeback...“We needed that one after being down for two games,” he said...“They really showed me something with that press,” he stated. “We looked terrible in practice with it.”

Imhoff bemoaned the Eagles' mistakes and turnovers in the fourth quarter...“We just stood around when they were pressing. We tried to force it inside when we shouldn't have. I told them not to,” he concluded...Red Creek is now 7-2 in league play while Wayne dropped to 5-4...Guthrie paced Red Creek with 28 points, all field goals. Johnson added 14 while LaGoe and Smith chipped in with 12 and 10 respectively. Collins paced Wayne with 18. Manning had 13 and Wyse and Kelly had 10 apiece

Spartans Topple Marauders

Sodus outscored Williamson, 25-17, in the fourth quarter and went on to a 61-50 victory last night in a Wayne County League basketball game at Williamson.

The Spartans used the press to force Williamson into 12 turnovers, most of them steals, in the fourth quarter. Sodas led, 36-33, after the third quarter and 28-27, at halftime.

Gary Zeger led the Spartans with 17 points and Dan Thomas added 16 and Joe Jackson 10, all in the fourth quarter. Sodas is 11-0 overall and 9-0 in league.

Williamson, 4-5, in league play and 5-6 overall was led by Dave VanGorder with 14 points, Robbie Kuhn with 12 and Chris Lund 10.

CLYDE-SAVANNAH 56. LYONS 55 — Five-foot-eight Walt Collbaugh hit for 30 points as the homestanding Golden Eagles held off Lyons' 20-point fourth period surge.

The senior guard hit the 30-point level for the second time this season. The Golden Eagles, 6-5, never trailed as Lyons' Al Simmons with 17 and Nick Sculli with 12, were the only other players in double figures in the game.

PALMYRA-MACEDON 65. MARION 45 — Palmyra-Macedon boosted its record to 6-4 in the league at home. Mike Morgan paced the Red Raiders with 15 points. Teammate Jim Nolan added 12 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. Marion is 2-8.

RED CREEK 84. NORTH ROSE-WOLCOTT 60 — Charles Johnson scored 23 points to ead Red Creek to a victory at home.

Sports Corner

By Bernie Porray

Editor's note: Last week's special Progress Report was the innocent cause of a space problem in that issue and Sports Corner had to be omitted. Operating on a 'better late than never' policy we have decided to run the column a week late. Readers should keep in mind that when mention is made of a game 'last week' it naturally refers to a game of the week before.

Wayne Central's basketball team shook the third quarter jinx that has been haunting them all year and went on to two impressive victories last week running their mid-season league record to five wins and three losses. They downed North Rose-Wolcott 65 to 46 on Tuesday and then shocked Nick DerCola's Clyde-Savannah team on Friday, 88 to 66. Meanwhile Dawson Raymo's wrestlers, with three of their best wrestlers on the sidelines with shoulder injuries, lost to a strong Webster team on Tuesday, 31 to 18, but came back on Thursday with four pins to nail Newark 32 to 18.

The basketball game at North Rose on Tuesday was very close the first half. Wayne trailed by as much as six and led by only two 25 to 23 at halftime. Instead of folding in the third quarter as they had been doing, they pumped in 28 points and led 53 to 32 at the end of three quarters.

Coach Imhoff emptied the bench in the last quarter but the outcome was never in doubt. Chris Collins hit two more baskets to give him 20 points for the night. Glen Cone had a basket and four foul shots and Charlie Wilcox a basket to keep Wayne well out in front. Besides Collins 20 points, Bobby Hetu had four baskets and eight of nine free throws for 16 points and Jeff Louck, 11.

Coach Sonter's JV's had a great first period moving out to a 16 to eight lead on four points each by Gordon and Buchiere and two each by Stevens, Hyman, Smith and Brown. They started turning the ball over in the second quarter and were leading by one, 27 to 26, as the half ended. During half time they must have taken some Sominex because they slept thru most of the third period, scoring only one point and fell behind 42 to 27. They aroused only slightly in the final quarter, scoring nine points to 20 for their opponents as they walked off the floor with a 62 to 37 shellacking. Brown had nine points and Buchiere eight for Wayne.

Wayne's wrestlers jumped ahead of Webster 12 to zero on Tuesday as Larry Bamford won nine to two, Mike Jeffers two to nothing and Teddy Hargather picked up a 3:25 pin. Bobby Azzona lost by a pin and Roy Lund by a five to one decision to make it 12 to nine but Richie Lang picked up another win, six to five, to put Wayne ahead 15 to nine. Tom Fisher lost a very close match, Steve Welker lost by a pin and Patsy Catalano by a 11 to three decision to put Webster ahead 21 to 15. Gino Affronti picked up three points on a ten to one decision but Don Van Dusen, filling in for injured Al Catalano who was filling in for injured Rick Anderson, lost a decision and as the match was lost anyway, Coach Raymo forfeited the heavyweight match rather than risk further injury to Dale Barker's injured arm.

The JV's also started off good getting a 5:54 pin from Ron Fisher, a forfeit by Rick Leuty and a 3:04 pin by Billy Dixon for an 18 to zero lead, but Norm Bargerstock's 4:39 pin was the only bout they could win of the next nine and lost 36 to 24.

The freshmen basketballers were at North Rose-Wolcott on Tuesday and lost 46 to 34. Keith English was high scorer with seven points as Coach Heimberger tried to get as many boys as possible into a game. They played Clyde-Savannah at home on Friday afternoon and also dropped that one 38 to 32. Tommy Roome was top scorer for Wayne with ten points. Paul Devlin was the best rebounder.

On Thursday, the "Little tiger", Larry Bamford gave Wayne a six to nothing lead with a 3:23 pin, but Billy Dixon, Mike Jeffers and Bobby Azzona all lost decisions to put Newark ahead nine to six. Roy Lang, after dropping several close decisions lately, had the crowd on their feet cheering for him as he won by decision 12 to give. Brother Rick, like old man river, just keeps on rolling up wins with another seven to two decision putting Wayne ahead 12 to nine with Tommy Fisher wrestling. Wayne lost a point making it 11 to nine when the referee who couldn't see good but could hear very well, didn't approve of some of the criticism and advice he was getting. Tommy lost another close one ten to seven to put Newark ahead 12 to 11 but Steve Welker came through with an exciting 2:29 pin, Patsy Catalano won a 11 to ten thriller and Gino Affronti clinched the match with a pin at 5:14. Don Van Dusen took a five to nothing lead but lost to Kaller of Newark by a pin. Dale Barker took a quick five to one lead and then got the quickest pin of the night at 1:23. The final score was 32 to 18. Teddy Hargather was out with a pulled shoulder muscle.

This is young Don Van Dusen's first year as a wrestler and he is wrestling in what most people figure is the toughest class of all, 177. Because of injuries he moved up to the varsity last week. What a baptism he received. He went the route with the champion of the Xerox tournament on Tuesday and even though he lost by a pin on Thursday, he nearly pinned Kaller of Newark, last years county champion, in the first period. Only a sophomore, great things are expected of Don the next two years.

The JV's lost another close one, 32 to 27. Ron Fisher won by forfeit, Marty Slade with a pin at 2:51 and Rick Leuty with one at 3:31 to put Wayne ahead 18 to nothing but Flint, Harens, Mitchell, White and Hyland all lost before Norm Bargerstock won five to two to make it 21 to 20 Wayne. Paul Farrell took a quick five to two lead but lost by a pin. Newark won the next match by forfeit to make it 21 to 32. Dave Mogray scored Wayne's final six points on a forfeit.

The reaction of the large crowd was the best I have ever seen. Newark had a fine following and both schools stood and cheered their wrestlers before their matches were over if they were winning. The boys need and like this. The referees and coaches were having their troubles all evening long, which made it more interesting.

Last Friday, for the first time this season, Wayne's varsity basketball team played up to their potential. After a very tight first quarter, in which the lead changed hands eight times, Wayne gradually pulled away to a 34 to 25 halftime lead. In the last half it was no contest as Wayne completely dominated good Clyde-Savannah team. After three periods it was 56 to 38.

In the fourth quarter Jeff Louck hit three baskets, Clete, Cone and Kelly two each as Wayne rolled to a 78 to 51 lead with 2:38 left. Coach Imhoff cleared his bench at this point but Wally Wyse and Charlie Wilcox hit four points each and Danny Goff had two free throws as the final score read 88 to 66. Clete Manning had 22 points and 14 rebounds, Chris Collins 17 points, Jimmy Kelly, 13, and Jeff Loucks, 12.

The JV's played one of their better games even though they lost 50 to 42. Clyde moved out in front 15 to eight after one quarter but Wayne outscored them ten to nine in the second quarter to make it 24 to 18 at halftime. Baskets by Gordon, Buchiere, Stevens and Smith tied the score at 26 to 26 with 5:44 left in the third quarter, but Clyde began to press at this point and Wayne turned the ball over several times as they fell behind 38 to 29 at the end of the quarter. Wayne outscored them 13 to 12 in the final quarter but couldn't make up the difference.

Four county teams seek revenge in Wayne hoop

Surprise Of Season

BY DAVE SHAW

The Wayne County basketball league resumes action tonight with the Sodus Spartans facing one more obstacle in their drive for an undefeated season.

Highlighting a full slate of games, the Spartans (10-0 league, 12-0 overall) will play host to the dangerous but somewhat erratic Wayne Eagles (5-4).

Sodus, an outfit that relies on a total team effort, has been able to come up with enough scoring punch to beat everyone they've faced this year.

Thus, if their leading scorer, Joe Jackson (17.5) is not having a good scoring night, someone will pick up the slack. Sometimes it's Brad Perry, or Gary Zeger, or Dan Thomas, or Jed Dodge. Without really overpowering too many teams, Sodus uses this "shared offense," the best rebounding game in the league, and the best defense in the league to subdue their victims.

BILL TINGUE....Sodus' 6'6" reserve center.

Tonight the Spartans will face a Wayne team that gave them the scare of their lives before bowing 51-50 way back on Dec. 15.

In that game, the Eagles were able to slow down the Sodus running game and battle them even on the boards. It took a free throw by reserve forward Fred Cheetham with five seconds left to pull out the win.

Since then, Wayne has been an up and down team. Coach Chuck Imhoff's charges have beaten Marion, Williamson, Lyons, North Rose-Wolcott, and Clyde-Savannah while losing to Red Creek twice, Sodus, and Pal-Mac.

The Eagles are the type of team that could pull the upset.

They're young, like Sodus, and they love to run. Imhoff feels the Eagles are best when they run and have a pair of nifty passers and drivers in Chris Collins (14.5) and sophomore Bob Hetu.

Statistically, Sodus would rate the edge. They have allowed the fewest points (49.3 per game) and possess the second most productive offense (65.4 pts. per contest).

Wayne, meanwhile, ranks third in the league in both offense and defense, allowing 58.3 on defense and scoring 64.4 on offense.

To counter the Sodus offense Wayne will present Collins (14.5) and forward Cleve Manning (12.6). Sophomore Bob Hetu, forward Jim Killy, and guards Wally Wyse and Kevin Loucks are also capable of big games if they get hot.

Sodus coach Ed LaRock, commenting on the narrow win over Wayne the first time, said, "We've got to win the close ones to be undefeated."

LaRock also said the Spartans would have to "really hustle" tonight to beat the Eagles. "They're strong point is their hustle," he said, "and I expect them to press right from the start."

In other games, three teams will be seeking revenge in re-matches of their initial league encounters.

In Lyons, the Lions are trying to rebound from a 56-55 loss to Clyde-Savannah in a game many felt was out of control by the officials. The game was marred by a melee that erupted late in the game and promoted Coach Frank Lisco to say, "The refs allowed us to be intimidated."

The Lions (3-7) are also trying to even the score with the Pal-Mac Raiders tonight. Pal-Mac beat Lyons 63-55 in their first meeting but Coach Don Jordan thinks things will be tougher in the Lions' den.

Although coming off an impressive win over Marion last week, Pal-Mac has had their problems lately. After getting off to a quick 4-0 start the Raiders have lost four of their last six games.

The Raiders shot 53 percent last week in trouncing Marion and Jordan is hoping they can keep it up tonight against Lyons. "We've only won one game away from home (Marion)," said Jordan, "and the glass backboards at Lyons may affect our shooting. We'll have to work for the close-in shot instead of bombing away."

The Raiders boast the league's No. 2 scorer in junior Mike Morgan (19.4) and forward Jim Nolan (10.1) in double figures while the Lions have the loop's No. 1 pointmaker, senior Alan Simmons (22.3) and guard Nick Sculli (12.1) in double figures.

Lyons' mentor Lisco, who says he takes the losses harder than the players said, "Well, we'll have to cut down on our mistakes and be more aggressive. I can't seem to stress it enough that we have to be aggressive from the opening whistle. We only seem to get aggressive when we're behind and then it's usually too late."

Lisco is still trying to find a five-man unit that will jell. The Lions, using eight to nine players equally, shot only 29 percent in losing to Clyde-Savannah. Despite the Lions troubles, "the kids still have their heads up," according to Lisco.

In another return match, the Golden Eagles of Clyde-Savannah will travel up Rt. 414 to invade the home of the North Rose-Wolcott Cougars.

The Cougars beat Clyde-Savannah 60-51 in Clyde on Dec. 15 and are hoping to repeat that on their home court.

Clyde-Savannah (5-5) beat Lyons last week and would appear to rate the edge in tonight's contest. Coach Nick DerCola's crew rank slightly above NR-W in team statistics while both teams have some offensive stars of their own.

Walt Coolbaugh, the Golden Eagles 5'8" senior guard, is coming off a 30-point night against Lyons and is hitting for 15.5 points a game. He is supported by guard Greg Donk (12.2) and center Bill Mead (13.6).

North Rose-Wolcott (2-8) gave Red Creek a battle for three quarters before succumbing 84-60 last week. Coach Ted Woods said the Cougars "got tired" in the fourth quarter against Red Creek.

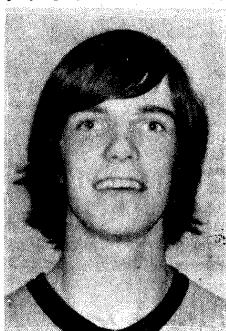

In their earlier win over Clyde-Savannah, Woods felt the key to victory "was the fact that we out-boarded them and were getting two-to-three shots." Woods has been unable to get his charges to all play well at the same time. When they do, NR-W has Barry

Jones (14.5), Royce DuVal (12.1) as the main weapons.

Finally, the Williamson Marauders (3-6) travel to Marion for a rematch with the Black Knights (2-8).

Williamson put on their best offensive display of the season in beating Marion 82-64 the first time around. Coach Gary Clark's team scrimmaged Newark this week to prepare for the game and to settle his starting lineup.

Williamson upended Red Creek two weeks ago but fell to Sodus last week, 61-50 in a game Clark felt saw "some players not playing up to their potential."

JIM KELLY....Wayne Eagles boardman.

Senior forward Chip Marcellus, back in the lineup after illness, leads the Marauders attack with a 12-8 average. Junior forward Dave Van Gorder is next at 11.3.

Marion won two straight before bowing to Pal-Mac last week. Coach Joel Griffing feels the Black Knights are capable of beating Williamson "if we can play good defense and don't get hurt off the boards." The Black Knights have the worst statistics in the league, scoring the fewest points, 51.9 a game and giving up the third most, 62.1. Only forward Kevin Hosmer (10.1) is in double figures.

Red Creek (8-2) has the night off to get ready for Lyons on Tuesday.

Sodus's basketball team is the surprise team of the year in Section 5.

The Spartans are the only unbeaten team left in the Rochester area (12-0 overall, 10-0 league) and are the class of the Wayne County League.

Sodus could go unbeaten in regular season play. Sodus lost four starters from last year, including Bob Blakely who averaged 23 points a game.

"I didn't expect that we would be unbeaten at this time of the season," coach Ed LaRock said. "I knew I had a talented squad, but I didn't expect that it would jell as fast as it has."

"OUR SHOOTING IS IMPROVING AND we're handling pressing defenses better," said LaRock.

Sodus goes for its 13th victory tonight in a home game against Wayne. A victory tonight could clinch a tie for the Class A league title. (Sodus would be 11-0 in league action and the nearest team, Palmyra-Macedon, would be 6-5 in the league if it loses to Lyons tonight). Each team would have five more games to play.

Sodus defeated Wayne by a point earlier in the season at Wayne. "We shot 29 per cent in that first game," said LaRock. "Visiting teams shoot poorly in their gym."

"WE HAD TROUBLE WITH THEIR PRESS," he said. "Now, we like to see opponents press us. It gives us a chance to score easy lay."

Sodus' biggest assets is depth and overall balance. LaRock has 10 boys who play regularly. And unlike last year, the team doesn't depend on one player to score most of its points. Joe Jackson leads the team in scoring (17 points a game) followed by Jed Dodge (12.0), and Gary Zeger and Brad Perry, both at 10.

"The key to our success this season is our balance," said Dodge, the only starter back from last year. "If one of us has a bad night someone else does well."

"WE PLAY WELL EVEN WHEN WE'RE behind," said Perry, a 6-2 forward. "We don't lose our poise."

The Spartans' most important victory of the season was a comeback win against host Red Creek. Red Creek led most of the game, but Sodus took over in the last three minutes for a five-point victory. Red Creek was 8-0 going into the game.

Sodus, despite its unbeaten record doesn't take opponents for granted. "We take each game one at a time," said Bill Tingue, a reserve center. "We're concentrating on Wayne this week."

SODUS—Asserting their well-known control of the backboards, the Sodus Spartans exploded in the fourth quarter to upend the Wayne Eagles 72-58 for their 13th win in a row.

The Spartans opened up a commanding 19-6 first quarter lead and had to hold off a Wayne rally to remain undefeated.

Jeff Loucks opened the game with a jumper but Sodus ran off the next 13 points. Joe Jackson, Brad Perry, and Dan Thomas all scored in the machine-gun Spartan flurry.

Jim Kelly got Wayne back a bucket with 1:03 to go in the quarter but Perry and Gary Zeger connected for the Spartans to make it 17-4.

Loucks swished another long jumper but Thomas ended the first quarter scoring with a follow-up of a missed shot and a 19-6 Sodus lead.

As it turned out, Sodus needed that comfortable margin because Wayne outscored the Spartans 22-12 in the second quarter.

Chris Collins, the Eagle's leading scorer, hit his first bucket of the night, a 20-footer, to make it 19-8. Jackson pushed a missed free throw in before Wayne score the next eight points.

Clete Manning, Bob Hetu, and Collins all got on the board to slash the margin to 21-16 with 5:51 to go in the half.

The second quarter was a display of how not to score points. Both teams found the lid off the basket for the first 3:16 of the half.

Gary Zeger finally broke the scoring drought with his specialty, a 15-foot bank shot for a 23-16 lead. Wally Wyse pumped in a baseline jumper and Manning made a pair of free throws to make it a 23-20 game.

Zeger banked in another for a 25-20 Sodus lead. The Spartans' play turned shoddy with flurry of turnovers. Manning's layup made it 25-22 with 2:21 to go in the half.

Perry followed with a short jumper and reserve Bill Tingue meshed a pair of free throws to give Sodus a 29-22 bulge with 1:11 left in the half.

Loucks and Manning teamed up for four points and with 21 seconds left, Sodus led 29-26. Jed Dodge scored his first points of the game with two free throws with six seconds left.

Loucks ended the first half by hitting a jumper as he was falling down. The Spartans were outplayed in the second quarter but held a 31-28 halftime lead.

Jackson led Sodus with 10 points but Wayne battled the Spartans nearly even on the boards, with one less at 16-15.

Zeger began the second half with a jump shot but Manning countered with a baseline jumper to make it 33-30. Dodge and traded baskets for a 35-32 count with 6:20 left in the third quarter.

After Jackson hit a jumper, Wayne ripped off the next five points on Manning's drive, plus Loucks steal and free throw.

With 5:24 to go, the score was tied at 37-37. Jackson broke the deadlock with a free throw but Kelly's layup and Louck's tip-in gave the Eagles a 41-38 lead.
