DEDICATION

The dedication is a very important part of our yearbook since the person chosen is one who is very devoted to his work and is concerned and communicative with the students of Wayne Central. Therefore, the 1973 Yearbook staff and the entire student body are extremely proud to dedicate the 1973 Eagle to Mrs. Florence Powell.

Mrs. Powell was born in Makinak, Canada, on May 27, 1926. At the age of 2 she became a resident of Saranac Lake, New York, which was her home through her school years. She attended the State University of New York at Albany from which she graduated with a teaching degree in mathematics.

She and her husband, Nolan, were married and moved to Ontario, New York, in 1949. Mrs. Powell has six children, Alan, who is now married, Susan and Scott, who are attending the State University of New York at Albany, David, a junior at Wayne, Kenneth, a sophomore at Wayne, and Jeffrey, an eighth grader at Wayne.

At the beginning of her teaching career, Mrs. Powell taught for one year in Cario, New York, and for one year in North Rose, New York. Then she came to Wayne Central where she now teaches high school mathematics.

There is nothing finer than knowing Mrs. Powell for the person she is and feeling her warm personality glowing forth. We are very happy to dedicate our 1973 Yearbook to this wonderful woman.

Our lives will cross many paths as we grow from childhood to adulthood. These paths shall lead us through all kinds of experiences and allow us to understand many people.

We chose the theme "Paths" for our 1973 yearbook, for every man must walk the path of life. In school the path of knowledge is open to every one who enters its doors.

All paths lead somewhere, whether they are long or short, narrow, or wide. The end will eventually be reached. Our school years are just the beginning of each man's path; where he goes from there is his choice, but yet, he'll always follow a path.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Dear Friends,

With this letter I try to say "thank you" to all of you. Thank you, for all the patience you had with me in the beginning and thank you for all the help and understanding I received.

You never gave me the feeling of being a stranger, but let me be one of you. I'll always remember how kindly you explained and showed all new things to me and later on all the opportunities I had to participate in your activities. When you elected me as chairman for the communication committee, I was really grateful that you had so much confidence in me to give me a chance and let me try. Hopefully I didn't disappoint you.

I also appreciated that I could, once in a while, tell you about my country, in return for what you taught me about your way of living. Be sure, I'll stay in touch with you, when I'm back in my country, Germany, and whenever one of you intends to come over, I hope we see each other again.

With love,

Ingrid

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Derek Weisenreder

This summer was a chance for me to meet, study, and experience the life style of a different people, nation, and society. My conclusion is a simple one and not at all startling. We are all the same; we tell the same jokes, hear the same gossip, and know the same joys and sorrows of life. The variations rated by thousands of years and miles of separation seem minute when one breaks the language barrier, and sheds the shell of prejudice formed by years of lack of information, and misinformation. Our similarities are so striking that one is easily led to a single simple conclusion, man has only one destiny and only one Father.

SENIOR STUDIES

CE

Sue Copenhagen — If smiles were money she'd be a millionaire.

Mike Johnson — Tomorrow life is too late; live today!

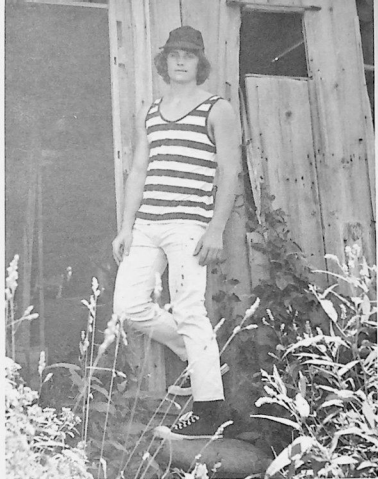

Al Catalano — Hard work has never killed a man, but it sure has scared a lot of them.

Linda Darron — Smile — a curved line that sets things straight.

Mark Wilbur — The future is bought with the product.

Ted Faulks — The style is the man himself.

Jamey Buck — All his passes aren't made on the soccer field!

Wayne Eichorn — I am as bad as the worst, but thank God I am as good as the best!

Linda Reeves — Happiness is a laughing matter.

Cindy Fernaays — Dreams make life because life is made of dreams.

Debbie Malone — Friendship was meant to be enjoyed and shared, our friends are irreplaceable.

Gino Afronti — I never give them hell. I just tell the truth and they think it's hell.

Jean Switzer — I never knew I could make such a commotion.

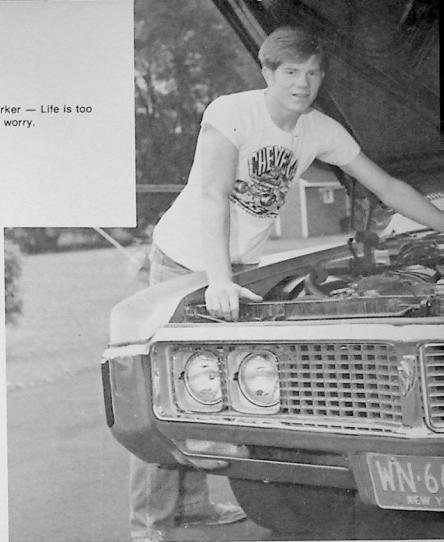

Denise Flatt — I would rather sit on a pumpkin and have it all to myself, than to be crowded on a velvet cushion.

Pat Cantin — The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure my business.

Dale Barker — Life is too short to worry.

Capri Martinez — My life is my message.

Sue Gracie — For loveliness needs not the foreign aid of ornament.

Elaine Rosser — Smiling is the sense of feeling good all over, and showing it.

Darlene Canan — I can believe anything as long as it's incredible.

Ingrid Weigand — The best way I know to even an argument is to start by being right.

Dan Goff — This time, like all times, is a very good one if we know what to do with it.

Debbie Collins — Happiness was made to be shared.

Linda Dudley — She likes to like people; therefore people like her.

Charlie DeMinck — High school days have their delights but they can't compare with high school nights.

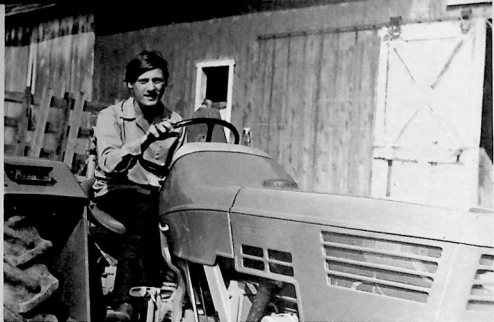

John Blind — To be alive is to live without fear of life.

Steve Miller — All the world may not love a lover, but all the world watches him!

Marty Doyle — The art of running the mile consists of reaching the threshold of unconsciousness at the instant of bursting the tape.

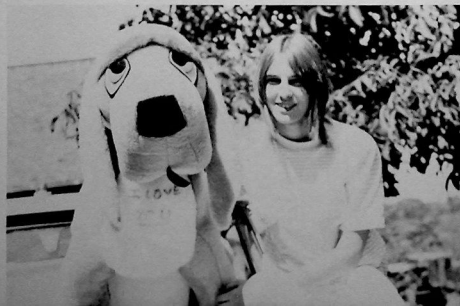

Ed Zimmerman — Any kindness I can show to any fellow man, let me do it now.

Jean VanMarter — It matters not how long we live, but how.

Anna Ottenschot — The modern rule is that every woman must be her own chaperone.

Cheryl Hawley — Paying attention does come in handy in the end.

Richard Haak — What is that you said about my cycle?

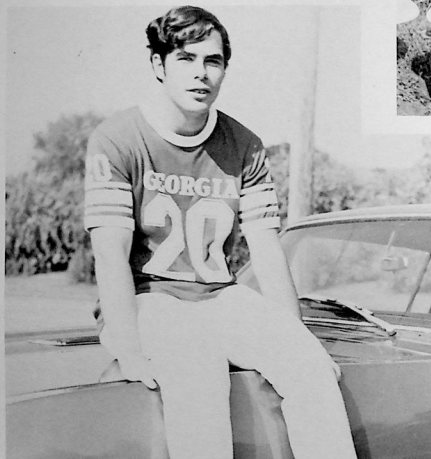

Roger Casler — Eat, drink, and be merry, there's always tomorrow for work.

David DeGroot — If there is no hell, a good many preachers are obtaining money under false pretenses.

Craig Osterhout — The teacher who complains that sports interferes with academic work doesn't realize how seriously academic work interferes with sports!

John Banke — Of two evils, choose the least!

Karen Stiles — To be like Christ is to be a Christian.

Gail Abbott — Never bend your head. Always hold it high. Look the world straight in the face.

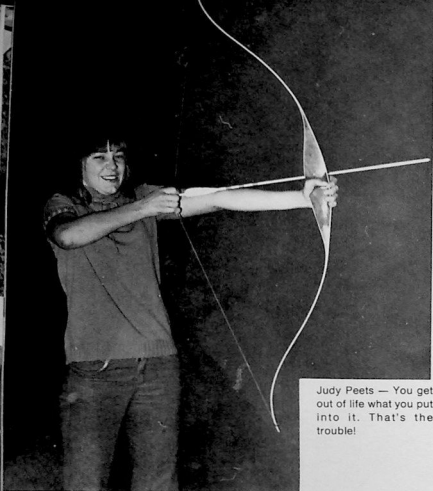

Bonnie Casler — Humor is falling down the stairs while warning someone else not to.

Greg Bebernitz — Pain makes man think. Thought makes man wise. Wisdom makes life endurable.

Barb Howard—A woman always has her revenge ready!

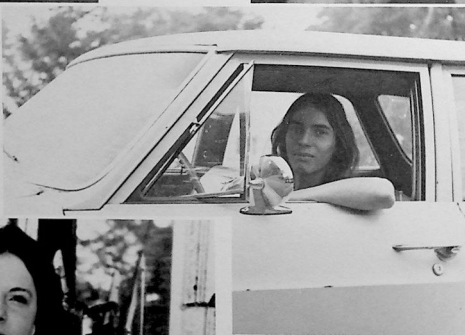

Judy Peets — You get out of life what you put into it. That's the trouble!

Cindy Johnson — Since life is brief, we need to make it bright.

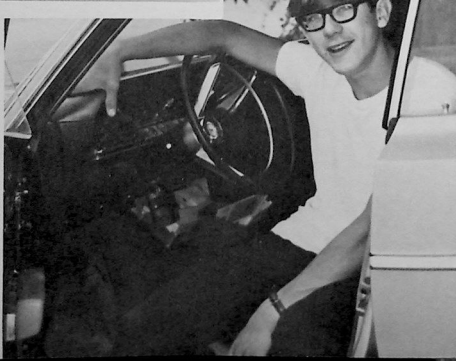

Mark Thomas — The most he wants to get out of school is himself.

Daryle Welker — At age 18 everything is possible and the world looks friendly.

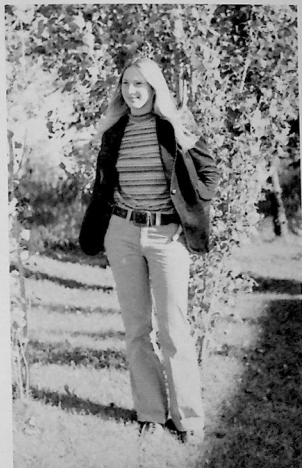

Karen Spath — A giggle is worth a thousand grins.

Carl Thompson — A hunter is one who enjoys the chase but does not eat the game.

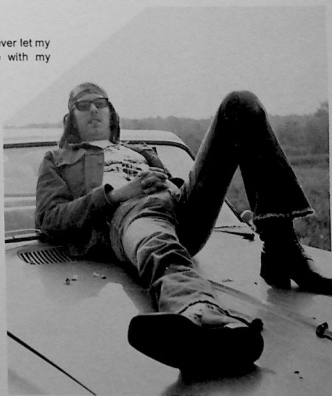

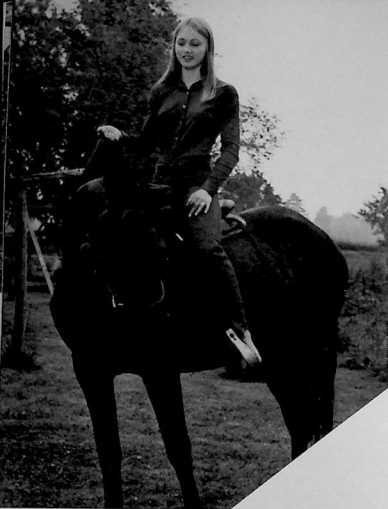

Cindy Skorinko — Her ways are ways of gentleness, and all her paths are peace.

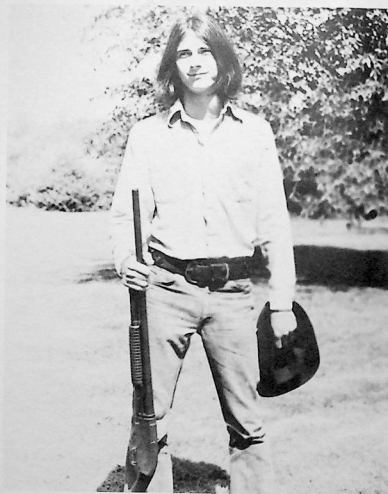

Linda Goodwin — Life is a long path that knows no turning.

Bill Burkhart — I never let my schooling interfere with my education.

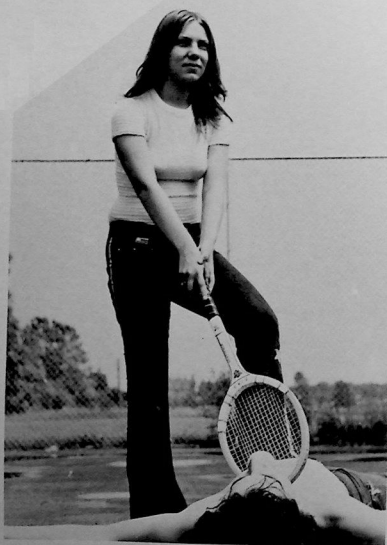

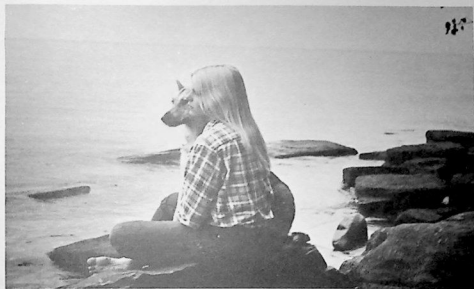

Donna Porterfield — But — one can't know everything.

Mike McCarten — You've got to love what's lovable, and hate what's hateable. It takes brains to see the difference.

Mary Enderlin — A little dream can go a long way.

Martha Brekenridge — Nothing can bring you peace but yourself.

Sue Carr — Peace rules the day.
Reason rules the mind.

Carol Costenoble — Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile.

Mark Padgham — There's nothing two people can't do, so long as one is the Lord and the other is you.

Wendy Priest — People cannot change truth but truth can change people.

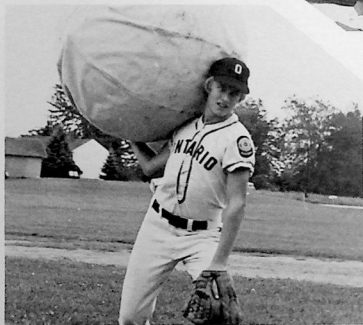

Chris Thompson — Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Patty Jones — Full of pep, full of fun, ready to do what needs to be done.

Brad Cuvellier — In God we trust, all others must pay cash.

Lani Havens — I am part of all that I have met.

Derek Weisenreder — Women are taking over! Women are jockeys, baseball umpires, atomic scientists, and business executives and they can't even master parallel parking!

Nancy Gordon — With every rising of the sun think of your life as just begun.

Wayne Schultz — The world stands aside to let anyone pass who knows where he's going.

Mark Jesse — It is man's destiny to ponder on the riddle of existence and, as a by-product of his wonderment, create a new life on earth.

Gail Webber — Life is an exciting business.

Rosie Atfronti — The female of the species is more deadly than the male.

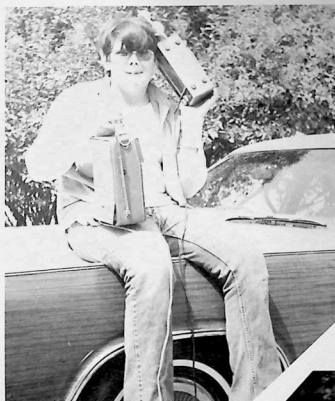

Roger Howie — Experience is a hard teacher.
She gives the test first and lesson afterwards.

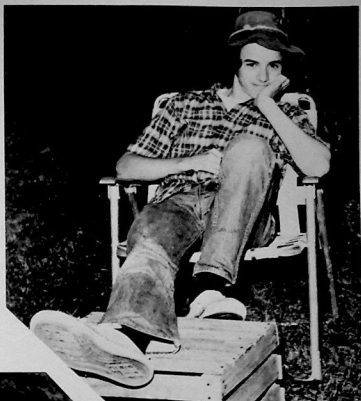

Cheryl Bamford — The greatest pleasure in life is doing what others say you can't do.

Bill Mitchell — The best way for school to be closed.

Mike Jeffers — An individualist listens to ideas, shapes them, and uses them to the betterment of his personality.

Ruth Tellow — To be remembered when you are gone, either write things worth reading about, or do things worth writing about.

Scott Trimble — I may not like music, but I love the noise it makes.

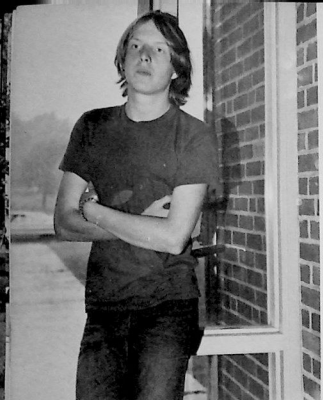

Robin Winkler — It's wonderful to climb the liquid mountains of the sky. Behind me and before me is God and I have no fears.

David Greene — I came, I saw, I conquered.

Ken Whiting — Hope for the best and prepare for the worst.

Mark Hedgepeth — Nothing with God can be accidental.

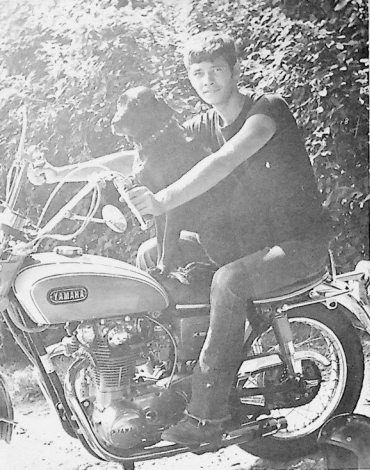

Jim Banke — My interest is in the future because I'm going to spend the rest of my life there.

Eileen Turner — Musician: A person who spends her time playing around.

Carol Johns — Of all traits, the greatest is patience.

Luther Keymel — At the outset I was quite detached, in fact I still am.

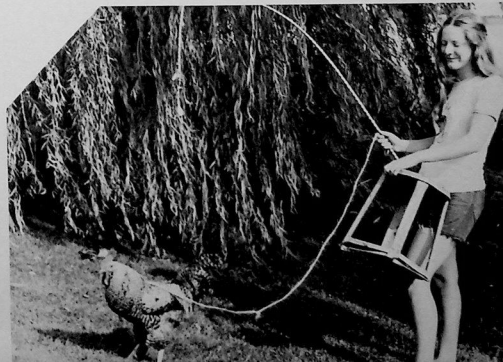

Janet Herman — She is educated who knows where to find out what she wants to know.

Joyce Jones — Don't put off 'till tomorrow what can be enjoyed today.

Nancy Gropp — You never get tired unless you stop and take time for it.

Joan Doyle — Give the best you have and the highest you know and do it now.

Bill Bulman — It's not true that life is one darned thing after another, it's one darned thing over and over.

Valerie Eastman — I dislike no one, I am at peace with the world.

Debbie Kuttruff — I may do some foolish things but I do them with enthusiasm.

Alan Hall — Life consists of what a man is thinking all day.

Barb Tiffany — Man has his will, but woman has her way.

Mary Moshano — Life is sort of like my flute, if you don't put anything into it then you don't get anything out of it.

Jim Nagel — His time is forever, everywhere is his place.

George Steffler — It's not what you do but what you get caught doing.

Mike O'Neill — Genius does what it must, talent lets genius do its work.

Ann Haak — Give a little love to a person and you'll get a great deal back.

Debbie Torcello — Happiness is a feeling of security.

Guy Heberle — A man should be like tea, his real strength appearing when he gets into hot water.

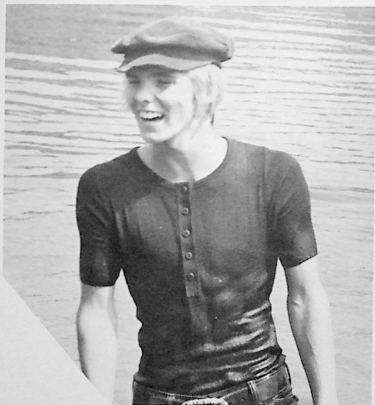

Florence Ford — Whatever women do they must do twice as well as men to be thought half as good. Luckily this is not very hard.

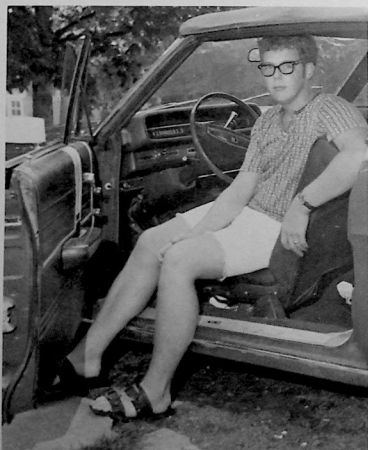

Jim Hale — He'll give the devil his dire.

Dorothy Robertson — One of the best ways to persuade others is with your ears . . . by listening to them.

Tim Hosier — I think the next best thing to solving a problem is finding some humor in it.

Mike Mayeu — Common sense isn't all that common.

Willie O Dell — The only way to have a friend is to be one.

Melissa Morgan — I will not retreat a single inch and I will be heard!

Charlie Wilcox — How did these notes get in my notebook?

Sue Kunzer — Life was meant to be lived, and curiosity must be kept alive.

Bunny Underhill — Good humor makes all things tolerable.

David Stappenback — There are two good things in life: freedom of speech and freedom of action.

Nancy Erlenback — If I should ever get wrinkles let them merely indicate where smiles have been.

Bill Froniear — Learn to live and live to learn.

Linda Curnow — Flirting is to woman as experimentation is to science.

Bob Herbster — When a man sits with a pretty girl for an hour it seems like a minute, but let him sit on a hot stove for a minute and it seems like an hour. That's relativity!

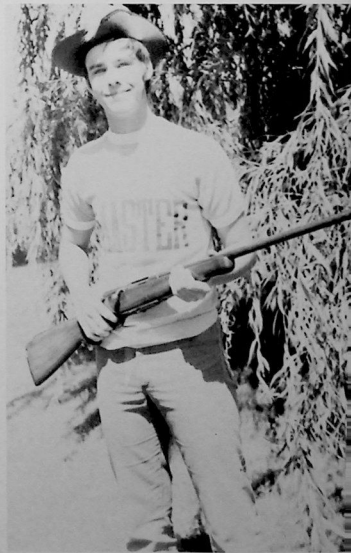

George Bauer — Live and let live to enjoy life.

Susan Stalker — Doing easily what others find difficult is talent; doing what is impossible for talent is genius.

Tom Hunt — It takes talent to be able to tell jokes, even bad ones, and have people laugh.

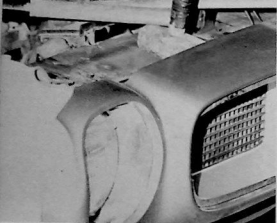

Diane Campbell — Praise loudly the good things in life, blame is too easily placed.

Terry Raymond — This poor little one horse town never had it so good till it had me.

Kathy Scott — People are my favorite pastime. I like to like them.

Dale Vance — Quiet men at times are most surprising.

Pam Buys — There is no magic formula for achieving creativity, it is simply a way of life.

Tom Drexler — I don't know what I'd do without this game.

Nancy Coene — Where there is an open mind, there is always a frontier.

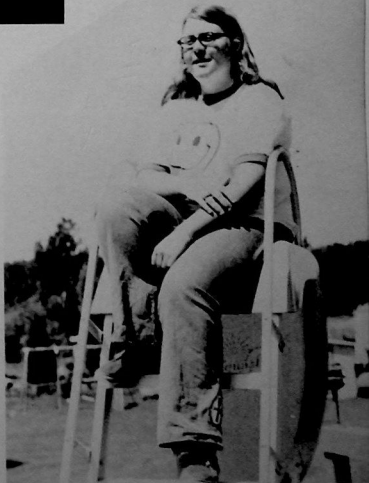

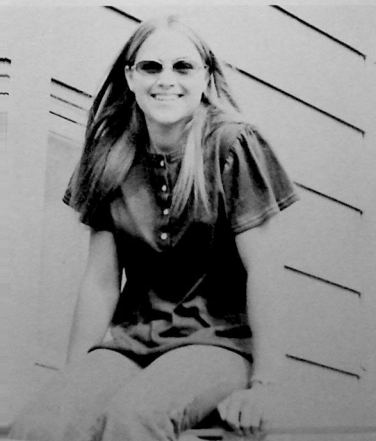

Doug Merritt — Better to reign in Hell than to serve in Heaven.

Dan Malone — The world belongs to the energetic. Oh well, I didn't want it anyway.

Debbie Pugsley — Peace is art and it doesn't matter when time passes by.

Cathy Deichmiller — She is able because she thinks she is!

Mark Kelly — I do hate to be unquiet.

Dean Ikewood — To be able to keep your convictions and your sense of humor requires balance similar to a tightrope walker.

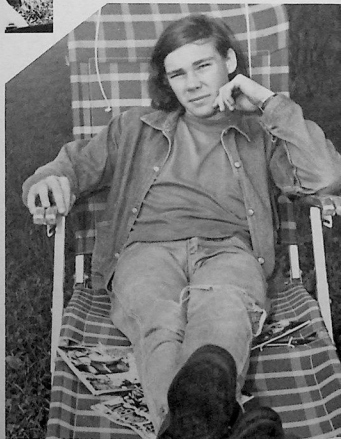

Randy Orbaker — No one has completed his education who has not learned to live with an insoluble problem.

Norman Druschel — What is mind? No matter! What is matter? Never mind!

John Cordeiro — Four Seasons? I thought there was only one. — Hockey season.

Deb Ellsworth — Life is what you make it.

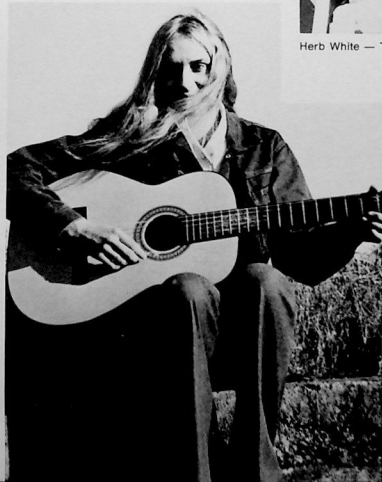

Rick Ebert — Life is a jigsaw puzzle with most of the pieces missing.

Nancy Bedford — To be in love is to merely be in a state of perpetual anesthesia.

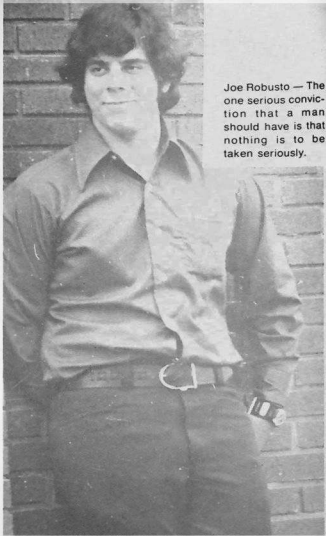

Herb White — To tease and not annoy, that is talent.

Sue McKee — The sunshine of a mind.

Jane Duyssen —
With malice towards none; with charity for all.

Joe Robusto — The
one serious conviction
that a man
should have is that nothing is to be taken seriously.

Pat Runne — A smart man is one who hasn't let a woman pin anything on him since he was a baby.

Ron Kōrahām — Man's mind stretched to a new idea never goes back to its original dimensions.

Gayle Bauerschmidt —
Joy is not in things — it is in us.

Linda Bilger — I always prefer to believe the best of everything and everybody.

Tom Frank — Public
animal #9.

Jim Peterson — Experience is what tells us to watch our step,
and it is what we get when we don't.

Underclassmen

I walk down the patterned path of these years,
In my stiff and sometimes childish way.
And I shall try to be as rare an individual
As I suppose everyone has tried to be.

The rain and winds are there,
But still, I start out expecting to arrive somewhere;
Always wanting names to things
And reasons why.

But this is my time;
And I'm eager to make it good—
But I look forward to the day
When I finally reach the end.

And as the years go by
I realize that the bushes are low, leapable
And that the mountains of their world
Are not so far away.

And when I finally reach the end
Of the long winding path,
I know I'll be looking back
Wishing that I could travel it again.

THE BRIDGE BUILDER

Will Allen Dromgoolle

An old man going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm vast and deep and wide
Through which was flowing a sullen tide;
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The sullen stream held no fears for him;
But he turned when safe on the otherside
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting strength with building here,
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again will pass this way,
You have crossed the chasm deep and wide,
Why build you this bridge at the eventide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head,
"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me,
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be;
He too must cross in the twilight dim,
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him."

Mr. Faulks

Dear Class of 1973,

Each graduating class is distinctive and each class is remembered in a different way. I shall remember the Class of 1973 as one of our outstanding classes, cooperative and pleasant. May each of you find happiness and success in the years ahead.

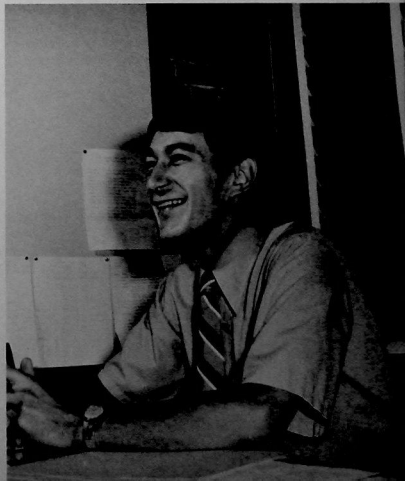

Emory Faulks
Principal

Mr. Miller

To the Class of 1973,

I hope that you will have a prosperous life and that you will contribute to our society to the best of your ability. I have enjoyed the opportunity of working with you, and wish you the best of life.

Mr. Miller
Assistant-Principal

Dear Seniors:

I guess my message to you is supposed to be highly inspirational. However, I'm not at all sure that what I might say would accomplish this purpose. Thus, just let me say that it has been a privilege to have helped you in any way possible. Your future is pretty much up to you. If you ever think we can help you some more, please come back. You're always welcome. Good luck!

Dear Seniors,

Although my contact with you has been incidental, I am aware that Wayne is a better place for your having been here. My thanks to you and sincere hope that others you come in contact with will gain as much as we have.

CENTRAL OFFICE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Another school year is quickly drawing to a close. Seniors are anxious to launch their own careers and grasp that long-sought diploma; underclassmen have a sense of pride in their advancing just another year in their high school education.

As you leave Wayne Central this June, whether as a graduate or a student who will return next fall for more challenges, I sincerely hope that you can reflect upon the past years at Wayne Central High School with a good feeling — a feeling that you have become a stronger and more poised person.

Congratulations on your accomplishments and best wishes in your future.

Very truly yours,

Carol Costenoble — Editor-in-Chief

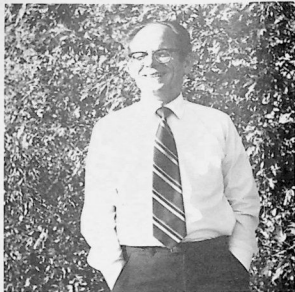

The yearbook is a representation of Wayne Central and all its memories put together in one publication for all to see. I sincerely hope that we, a small minority of the students, have succeeded in making the 1973 "Eagle" bring forth these good memories and in being something wonderful to look back on in the future.

I am extremely grateful to everyone who has given us cooperation, as I am sure we wouldn't have managed without it. And, even though our staff has put much time and hard work into the yearbook, we will never forget the valuable experience we have received from it.

Thank you so much,
Carol Costenoble

Robin Winkler — Co-editor

Mr. Norman Shaffer — Advisor

When I was first told that I had the job of being co-editor of the 1973 yearbook, I was not only surprised but greatly honored. I never realized the concern that each member of the yearbook staff holds for all individuals in our school. Each and every statement, write-up, and picture seen throughout our yearbook are built around the students, faculty, and all personnel of our school. My job as a co-editor was very minute compared to all the work each staff contributed. I strongly encourage students to participate in the construction of the yearbook, for here is where you will realize that someone does care and is concerned with all memories held in the past of each school year.

Thank you,
Robin Winkler

MUSIC

music

words of sorrow
waves of joy
flow freely through the
chasms of my mind
embracing me
and renewing
memories of the past;
wandering steadily
to branch out to paths
led through eternity.
i drift with them, having
no concept of time
i am carried along
'round crystal bends,
through satin valleys,
over velvet mountains.
i know not what waits
along the blind
trails which reach out
with open gates to greet me.
my mind searches each measure
while my heart grasps the meaning guided only by rhythm.
i glide along paths of peace,
excitement and danger
all the while assured
that they shall never
part from me.

Sports

The line that forks the path;
Winning, losing, victory, defeat.
It can be drawn so simply,
In a basket, a goal,
A split second on the clock.

To reach the path of victory
An inner drive, always striving for the top.
The swimmer bursting to the surface
Wishing only to breathe
The ecstasy of being first.

But in the end to know we have done our best;
To see in our performance the high points.
The scoreboard cannot show the true results of our labor.
Finally to us, the thrill of competition
Draws us across the line to the path of true victory.

this is why i travel this road.

but i will reach out my hands to you
to help you see the way,
and i'll dream of things that might someday be if we walk together for just one day.

INMATE IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

The prison improvement program was designed to benefit the inmates of the Wayne County Jail and to give interested Wayne Central art students the experience of relating their talent and knowledge through the teaching method. The above art students, along with several substitutes go to Lyons weekly to work on a one-to-one basis with the inmates. During the past months, a lot of talent has been discovered and some fine work has been produced.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other as just as far,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
